The KHRCA hosts approximately 250 guests. Each participant receives a copy of the Haggadah used at the 1946 Seder. A Rabbi and Cantor lead the service and a guest speaker reclass Passovers of the past.
Koslowitz		Queensborough Community College Auxiliary Enterprise Association, Inc.	112037770	*	5,000	CUNY	QPAC's Senior Loyalty Program is to help everyone access the arts, and is in response to a distinct lack of affordable entertainment options for the thousands of senior citizens residing in Queens. QPAC is requesting 5,000 to fund theatre trips and/or musical programs to be presented at the senior center enabling its members to enjoy QPAC's popular professional concerts and programs without ticket purchasing concerns. For seniors living on a fixed budget, the cost of tickets can be prohibitive. QPAC wants to make it easy for its seniors to continue enjoying our programs. Their past patronage has been the major reason why the Professional Series will continue into its 50th year. Some performances are sign interpreted for the deaf and hard of hearing. Throughout its 49-year history, QPAC has successfully produced over 1,200 performances and! served over 1 million individuals in its intimate 875-seat theater.
