PREFACE

On March 10, 2009, at 12 p.m., the Committee on Youth Services, chaired by the Hon. Lewis A. Fidler, jointly with the Committee on Community Development, chaired by the Hon. Albert Vann, will hold a hearing on the Mayor's Fiscal 2010 Preliminary Budget and Fiscal 2009 Preliminary Mayor's Management Report for the Department of Youth and Community Development.

Section 236 of the New York City Charter requires the Mayor to submit by January 16th a preliminary budget for the upcoming fiscal year.<sup>a</sup> In addition, under section 12 of the City Charter, the Mayor must make public and submit to the Council by January 30th the Preliminary Mayor's Management Report (PMMR) for the current fiscal year.<sup>b</sup> Among other things, the PMMR must contain "proposed program performance goals and measures for the next fiscal year reflecting budgetary decisions made as of the date of submission of the preliminary budget."<sup>c</sup> The Charter also requires the Council to hold hearings on the preliminary budget and to submit recommendations to the Mayor by March 25th.<sup>d</sup> This year, the Council will hold joint hearings on the Fiscal 2010 Preliminary Budget and the Fiscal 2009 Preliminary Mayor's Management Report.

Beginning with the Fiscal Year 2008 Adopted Budget, the Council and the Mayor's Office of Management and Budget agreed to an additional budget presentation, referred to by OMB as the budget function analysis, and by the Council as the program budget. Two agencies were initially presented in the program budget form. Beginning with the January 2008 Financial Plan (Fiscal 2009 Preliminary Budget), a total of 16 agencies are now in program budget form. The Department of Youth and Community Development is a program budget agency.

This report was prepared by Rocco D'Angelo, Supervising Legislative Financial Analyst, under the supervision of Deputy Director Latonia R. McKinney.

<sup>a</sup> The Charter prescribes specific actions that are required as part of the annual budget submission process during a fiscal year. The Charter allows for changes, via local law, in the dates in the submission of the PMMR, as well as an extension for subsequent steps in the budget process. This year, Local Law 03 of 2009 changed the date for the submission of the Preliminary Budget to January 30th, and the date for the Council's Response to the Preliminary Budget to April 8th.

<sup>b</sup> Local Law 03 of 2009 changed the date of submission of the PMMR to February 13, 2009.

Department of Youth and Community Development (260)

The Department of Youth and Community Development (DYCD) supports youth and community services through contracts with a broad network of community-based organizations throughout New York City. The Department supports a variety of activities, including structured recreation, athletics, tutoring and remedial education, leadership development, delinquency prevention, cultural enrichment, counseling, adolescent health care, substance abuse prevention, and runaway and homeless programs. To assist the communities in which youth and their families live, the Department administers federal Community Services Block Grant funds to help low-income people become more self-sufficient; provides services to immigrants; and performs outreach functions to non-public assistance applicants within the Home Energy Assistance Program field offices.

PROGRAM TO ELIMINATE THE GAP

Since the Fiscal 2009 Budget was adopted in June, the Office of Management and Budget has twice asked agency heads to submit Programs to Eliminate the Gap (PEGs) proposals. In the first round, in September, OMB sought PEG submissions equal to five percent of agency City tax-levy budgets for Fiscal 2010, with a further seven percent sought in December.

PEGs reduce the City's budget gap either by reducing an agency's City tax-levy Expense Budget spending, or by increasing City revenues. The chart below indicates the proposed PEG amounts for DYCD based on the Fiscal 2010 forecast at the time the Fiscal 2009 Budget was adopted (June 2008).

November and January Plan PEGs for Fiscal 2010 (in 000s)
Fiscal 2010 Forecast at Fiscal 2009 Adoption (June 2008)	$182,620

Total Fiscal 2010 PEGs	($21,256)
PEGs as a Percent of the Fiscal 2010 Forecast	11.64%

PRELIMINARY BUDGET HIGHLIGHTS

As one of the frontline agencies to address the needs of youth and immigrants in this City, the Department of Youth and Community Development provides services and programs that, dollar for dollar, have a tremendous impact on its participants. It does so by providing educational, recreational and cultural activities that operate during non-school hours, as well as assisting runaway and homeless youth and providing work-related education, skills training and employment opportunities for adults through adult literacy courses and citizenship attainment programs.

The City Council has been a champion of DYCD, adding more than $154 million in local and Council initiatives over the last several years, providing support from the little league in Staten Island to the community-based organization teaching English in Washington Heights. Therefore, it wants to ensure that the proposed reductions to this agency do not have a negative impact on services for the New Yorkers who need it most. Approximately 1.6 million New Yorkers age 16 and older do not have a high school diploma. Despite New York City's financial difficulties, providing literacy programs or summer jobs for youth will have lasting positive effects on the individuals served and to the City as a whole. So it is important for the City Council to closely examine the impact of the PEGs. For example, the Department proposes to streamline the OST program, reducing it by $1.8 million and consolidating ten OST middle school programs with Beacon Centers. The Department also proposes to draw down Workforce Investment Act (WIA) funding and apply $4.2 million in savings to an upcoming OST High School Request for Proposal (RFP). Funding shifts or consolidations on the surface are not necessarily bad, however, the Council is very concerned by the Department's proposal to reduce OST contracts by $2.1 million or 2,395 slots for contracts due to expire on August 31, 2008. The Council will seek to determine how this reduction will impact students and providers.

For DYCD, City tax-levy funding decreases from the Fiscal 2009 Adopted Budget of $250 million to the proposed Fiscal 2010 Preliminary Budget of $189 million, a $61 million decrease or 24 percent. This decrease is attributable to not only the Administration's proposed reductions but also one-time funding provided by the Council in Fiscal 2009 that is not included in the Mayor's Fiscal 2010 Preliminary Budget.

PROGRAM FUNDING OVERVIEW

Program budgets, as the name suggests, presents an agency's budget and headcount by discrete program areas, in contrast to the broader unit of appropriation breakouts which exist for every agency (see unit of appropriation table below). The tables below present an overview of the DYCD budget by those programmatic functions performed by the agency.

Program Funding	2008 Actual Expenses	2009 Adopted Budget	2009 Current Modified	2010 Preliminary Budget
Adult Literacy	$12,640,327	$15,781,630	$16,632,569	$13,325,616

Headcount Analysis

As part of a citywide vacant headcount reduction, the Department has reduced its headcount by 18 positions. Those changes are described in the program area sections of this report. The authorized headcount of 407 in the Fiscal 2010 Preliminary Budget was realigned to reflect the agency's organizational chart, which explains the change in headcount in several of the program areas from the Fiscal 2009 Adopted Budget.

PROGRAM FUNDING ANALYSIS

Adult Literacy

The Department of Youth and Community is a partner in the New York City Adult Literacy Initiative (NYCALI), which serves more than 50,000 New Yorkers each year at more than 150 sites throughout New York City. NYCALI is a multi-agency partnership which includes the City University of New York (CUNY), the NYC Department of Education (DOE), and the Queens Borough, Brooklyn, and New York Public Libraries.

The reduction in the Adult Literacy Program area from the Fiscal 2009 Adopted Budget to the Fiscal 2010 Preliminary Budget is due to a loss of $2.5 million in Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) funding, which is a 16 percent reduction in Adult Literacy funding. CDBG is a federal program that provides annual grants on a formula basis to entitled cities and counties, which New York City is a benefactor. The Council, in partnership with the Administration's Office of Adult Education, allocated $1.5 million in Fiscal 2009 to a number of community based organizations that provide English as a Second Language, GED and basic adult education classes throughout the City. The partnership looks to expand services and improve outcomes by developing a broad vision for the future of adult education.

This reduction in Adult Literacy funding is troubling in large part due to the ever increasing number of participants enrolled in Adult Basic Education and English as a Second Language programs throughout the City, as evidenced in the Preliminary Mayor's Management Report (PMMR) for Fiscal 2009. The number of participants more than tripled to approximately 7,000, which was due in large part to a January 2008 expansion that increased the number of programs from 25 to 40.

Beacon Community Centers

The Department's Beacon Program is a collaborative school-based program made up of 80 school sites throughout New York City providing out-of-school hour services. It is a nationally recognized model that uses a collaborative, school-based approach to serve a wider community as well as students at the host school.

In February of 2007, DYCD released an RFP with a contract start date of September 2007, which altered the emphasis of the Beacon program. Using recent research, the agency found that support and services for middle school youth can help prevent problems that lead to student drop-out in high school. Beacons continue to serve youth of all ages but now are required to provide sustained activity for middle school youth in six core areas: academic enhancement, life skills, career awareness/school to work transition, civic engagement/community building, recreation/health and fitness and culture/art.

For Beacon Community Centers, there is an increase of $10.2 million from the Fiscal 2009 Adopted Budget to the 2010 Preliminary Budget, which is a 23 percent increase. This increase is due in large part to a multi-agency plan to ensure the continuity of services at 25 New York City Housing Authority (NYCHA) community centers. The Administration intends to infuse $12.3 million in total to these facilities in two phases. The first phase will consist of funding going to DYCD's beacon community centers located near the 25 NYCHA facilities to establish satellite programs operating from February through December 2009. DYCD identified the 25 NYCHA sites through needs-assessment analysis and they are distributed among the boroughs as follows: ten in Brooklyn; five in Queens; five in the Bronx; four in Manhattan; and one in Staten Island. In the second phase of implementation, DYCD will issue a new RFP, with contracts beginning on January 1, 2010, designed to serve youth ranging from ages 5 to 21 at the 25 sites.

There is also a $2.1 million reduction in the Beacon Community Centers program line that is made up of reductions to motor vehicles and other general expenses, as well as reductions to contractual services for Beacons including accounting, auditing, and education and recreational services.

According to the PMMR, Beacon programs are on target for 100 percent enrollment. This is an ongoing trend for Beacons, which have been consistently at full capacity dating back to as far as Fiscal 2006.

Community Development Programs

Funding under this program area is used to administer community development programs, which provide a wide variety of community-based social services. There is a decrease of approximately $13.4 million in this program area, which is a 35 percent decrease in funding from the Fiscal 2009 Adopted Budget to the Fiscal 2010 Preliminary Budget. A large portion of the reduction is due to the Council's Immigrant Opportunities Initiative, which totals $5 million and is only reflected in the Mayor's Fiscal 2009 Adopted Budget, along with other Council Initiatives that have a community development facet to them. The loss of CDBG funding is reflected in this program area.

General Administration

This program area includes the commissioner's office and all other agency-wide administrative services, including management information and analysis, management planning, finance, personnel, labor relations, general services, data processing, general counsel, public information and operations site support, which includes security and custodial services.

In the Preliminary Plan, there is new need in the amount of $308,244 in Fiscal 2009 and $424,182 in Fiscal 2010 and in the outyears for personal services costs related to the prequalification process for vendors that receive discretionary funding from the City Council. However, there is no change to headcount because the Department will fill eight vacant slots in the Department to meet the pre-qualification need.

Other Youth Programs

This program area includes funding for a variety of youth programs, including after-school programs, youth education programs, youth leadership programs and youth internship, and service learning programs funded through the Center for Economic Opportunity (CEO).

Funding in this program area has decreased by 59 percent from the Fiscal 2009 Adopted Budget to the Fiscal 2010 Preliminary Budget due in part to the Council's CASA initiative, which totals approximately $4 million, and other one-time Council youth-related discretionary funding not reflected in the Mayor's Fiscal 2010 Preliminary Budget. However, there is an increase in funding for the Mayor's Center for Economic Opportunity programs, totaling $14.3 million.

Center for Economic Opportunity (CEO) – Youth Programs

There are three CEO programs - Service Learning, Young Adult Internships and the Young Adult Literacy Internship. The CEO program is a multi-agency initiative with the goal of breaking the cycle of intergenerational poverty among New York City's poorest residents.

- Service Learning. There is approximately $4 million in funding to create service learning programs for 4,500 youth each year in OST and Beacon school settings, and a headcount of five. Service Learning programs allow youth between the ages of 13 and 21 to design and implement a meaningful service project that meets a need in their community. Service Learning programs promotes appreciation for service and civic engagement, life-skills and critical-thinking skills, supportive relationships with caring adults, commitment to academic achievement and healthy behaviors.
- Young Adult Internships. There is approximately $9 million in funding to create youth internships to lead to the employment of roughly 1,400 disconnected youth each year, and a headcount of five.
- Young Adult Literacy. There is approximately $709,000, which enhances existing adult literacy providers contracting with the Department, to provide pre-GED classes for youth ages 16-24.

Out-of-School Time

The Out-of-School Time (OST) initiative provides a mix of academic, recreational and cultural activities for young people after school, on holidays and during the summer. The OST system now consists of 644 programs citywide. The programs are located in schools, community centers, settlement houses, religious centers, cultural organizations, libraries, public housing and Department of Parks and Recreation facilities. The City's OST system serves more than 80,000 children annually.

TOTAL OST BUDGET	$123,114,713		$104,847,326		($18,267,387)	-15%

The Out-of-School Time (OST) initiative provides a mix of academic, recreational and cultural activities for young people after school, on holidays and during the summer. The OST system now consists of 644 programs citywide. The programs are located in schools, community centers, settlement houses, religious centers, cultural organizations, libraries and public housing and Department of Parks and Recreation facilities. The City's OST system serves more than 80,000 children annually.

The OST program area shows a decrease of funding totaling $18.3 million from the Fiscal 2009 Adopted Budget to the Fiscal 2010 Preliminary Budget, which is a 15 percent decrease. The reduction is reflected in the Mayor's November Plan and Fiscal 2010 Preliminary Plan. The November Plan reductions total $8.1 million through a combination of three distinct PEGS, which are as follows: Streamlining OST into Beacons ($1.8 million); an OST slot reduction eliminating 2,395 slots in Fiscal 2010 ($2.1 million); and the Integration of WIA funding with OST ($4.2 million).

The Mayor's Fiscal 2010 Preliminary Budget Plan OST reductions total $10.1 million and are as follows:

- After School Program. The Department proposes a reduction to OST Option I summer programming totaling $2.8 million. DYCD's analysis shows that there are fewer youth using OST during the summer, therefore the impact of this reduction would be minimal. The Department is working closely with the Administration for Children's Services (ACS) to minimize the effect of this PEG;
- Consolidate OST Middle Schools into Beacons Programs. In the November Plan, the Department consolidated 10 OST programs into Beacon Centers that are co-located and operated by the same providers. The Department proposes consolidating an additional OST program co-located with a Beacon Center for a total savings of $148,900 in Fiscal 2010 and in the outyears; (Please note the total PEG is $148,900, but the PEG to the OST budget is $220,000 in Fiscal 2010 and in the outyears.)
- Elimination of OST Option II. The Department proposes eliminating OST Option II funding which saving approximately $6 million in Fiscal 2010 and in the outyears. OST Option II is a Public/Private Match program, which serves 10,750 youth for a minimum of 160 hours a year. Option II requires a 30 percent private funds match, which according to the Department, providers have found increasingly challenging to accomplish. Option II providers serve youth ages 12 and under and are not subjected to the specific hourly, weekly or seasonal program requirements prescribed for Service Option I programs;
- Increase in OST Low Performance Penalty. The Department proposes an increase in the OST low performance penalty from a ten percent penalty to a 20 percent penalty which will total an additional savings of approximately $569,741 in Fiscal 2010 and in the outyears;
- Reduction in OST Option I Elementary Programs. The Department proposes a decrease in funding of approximately $405,000 in Fiscal 2010 and in the outyears, which would reduce OST by 240 school-year slots in three Option I elementary contracts that have space constraints.

Total enrollment in OST programs was 62,198 at the close October 2008, an eight percent increase from one year earlier. Enrollment is expected to increase further during this fiscal year. However, as a result of budget reductions, there will be fewer contracts and slots, and the total number of OST participants at the end of Fiscal 2009 and Fiscal 2010 is projected to be lower than for Fiscal 2008.

Runaway and Homeless Youth (RHY)

In keeping with the federal Runaway and Homeless Youth Act (RHYA of 1978) and current New York State RHYA regulations, DYCD funds programs that are designed to protect runaway and homeless youth and, whenever possible, reunite them with their families. In cases where reunification is not possible, these programs are designed to help youth progress from crisis and transitional care to independent living. Program activities and experiences are designed to assist youth in becoming healthy, caring and responsible adults.

Funding under this program area shows a decrease of approximately $4.6 million from the Fiscal 2009 Adopted Budget to the Fiscal 2010 Preliminary Budget, which is a 40 percent reduction. This is due to the Beds for at Risk, Runaway and Homeless Youth Initiative funded by the Council in Fiscal 2009 not being reflected in the proposed Fiscal 2010 Preliminary Budget. This funding, along with Departmental funding, was used to continue crisis shelter and transitional independent living services for at risk, runaway and homeless youth throughout the City.

In the New York State's Fiscal 2009-2010 Executive Budget, there is a consolidation of several existing categorical grants, totaling $118 million, into a single $90 million youth block grant within the New York State Office of Children and Family Services (OCFS). Local governments will be able to use the funds to support detention services, the Special Delinquency Prevention Program (SDPP), Youth Development and Delinquency Prevention (YDDP) programs, Runaway and Homeless Youth (RHYA) programs, and Alternatives to Detention and Alternatives to Residential Placement programs.

The block grant approach favors mandated services, such as juvenile detention, over non-mandated programs, which puts programs such as RHY at a distinct disadvantage at drawing down important State funding if this block grant is passed.

Summer Youth Employment Program (SYEP)

The Summer Youth Employment Program (SYEP) provides New York City youth, between the ages of 14 through 21, with summer employment and educational experiences that build on their individual strengths and incorporate youth development principles. SYEP is comprised of two summer programs - the Stand-Alone summer program and the WIA In-School Youth (ISY) summer program. In the past several years, between 25,000 and 50,000 youth have received summer jobs through SYEP annually, which include a variety of entry-level jobs at community-based organizations and government agencies.

The Department proposes a reduction in SYEP in the amount of approximately $2.1 million or 1,450 fewer slots out of 16,200 city-funded slots beginning in the summer of 2009. However, the total SYEP reduction is $10.5 million, which is a $1.8 million reduction reflected in the November Plan, $2.1 million in the proposed Preliminary Plan as stated above, and the $6.6 million added by the Council that is not reflected for 2010. Also, SYEP is an initiative that receives a match and the State and Federal funding for Fiscal 2010 is not reflected yet. In total, there is a 55 percent reduction to SYEP. In Fiscal 2009, the State portion for SYEP is approximately $19.7 million and the federal portion, through the Workforce Development Act (WIA), is $3.4 million.

Over 100,000 youth applied for a summer job through DYCD in Fiscal 2009 for the summer of 2008, but due to limited City, State and federal resources, only 43,113 youth were enrolled in SYEP. The Council urges the State to join in urging the federal government to increase funding for summer jobs for youth through age 24 through the Workforce Investment Act (WIA). These funds could be used this summer by cities and counties to hire thousands of youth. A decrease in federal funding has meant that New York City increase its contribution, however it has become more difficult to do so.

Lastly, the increase in the minimum wage to $7.25 from $7.15 will result in fewer available summer jobs if the total funding for SYEP of $54 million does not increase.

UNITS OF APPROPRIATION

The operating budget of an agency is structured into several levels, each of which provides varying levels of detail on an agency's spending plans. The City Charter requires that U/As represent the amount appropriated for Personal Services (i.e. salaries) or Other Than Personal Services (i.e. supplies) for a particular program, purpose, activity or institution. The table below presents the DYCD budget, comparing the Fiscal 2009 Adopted Budget to the Fiscal 2010 Preliminary Budget. The Fiscal 2009 Modified Budget reflects this year's budget at the time this financial plan was released.

Department of Youth and Community Development

2010 January Plan

The Department of Youth and Community Development (DYCD) supports youth and community services through contracts with a broad network of community-based organizations throughout New York City. The Department supports a variety of activities, including structured recreation, athletics, tutoring and remedial education, leadership development, delinquency prevention, cultural enrichment, counseling, adolescent health care, substance abuse prevention, and runaway and homeless programs. To assist the communities in which youth and their families live, the Department administers federal Community Services Block Grant funds to help low-income people become more self-sufficient; provides services to immigrants; and performs outreach functions to non-public assistance applicants within the Home Energy Assistance Program field offices.

Adult Literacy

DYCD is a partner in the New York City Adult Literacy Initiative (NYCALI), which is the City's system for coordination of literacy services. In collaboration with the New York State Education Department, over 50,000 New Yorkers attend classes and tutorials each year at over 150 sites throughout the City. This highly coordinated system insures that Federal Workforce Investment Act, U.S. Department of Education, New York State Employment Preparation Education and Adult Literacy Education, and New York City funds are targeted for communities that have the greatest need for services and minimizes duplication of effort. Each year over $40 million is invested in providing basic educational services through NYCALI.

Beacon Community Centers

The Beacon Program represents an extension of the City's commitment to deliver efficient and improved quality educational opportunities to our youth. Each Beacon Program works collaboratively with the host school and the community, and engages the Community Advisory Council comprising parents, youth, school personnel, community representatives, local merchants, health care professionals, substance abuse prevention and/or treatment providers, law enforcement personnel and representatives of other community-based organizations. Currently, there are 80 Beacons located in public school buildings throughout New York City. Beacon Community Centers operate a minimum of six (6) days and 42 hours a week in the afternoons and evenings, on weekends, during school holidays and vacation periods, and during the summer.

In-School Youth Programs (ISY)

Funded by Title I of the Workforce Investment Act (WIA) of 1998, DYCD In-School Youth (ISY) employment programs focus on vocational training and education. In-School Youth programs serve high school students in their junior and senior years. Youth meeting the age and income requirements who need basic skills enhancement are eligible.

Out-of-School Time (OST)

The Out-of-School Time (OST) Programs for Youth is the largest after-school initiative in the nation. OST describes the major part of a young person's life that takes place outside of the school classroom – after school, on weekends, and during school vacations. Provided at no cost, the City's OST programs offer a balanced mix of academic support, sports and recreational activities, the arts and cultural experiences. OST programs not only build upon the school-day lessons, but they also open up new worlds and opportunities for youth. These programs coincide with the start of the school year in September.

Out-of-School Youth Programs (OSY)

Funded by Title I of the Workforce Investment Act (WIA) of 1998, Out-of-School Youth (OSY) employment programs focus on vocational training and education. Some out-of-school youth programs serve older youth aged 19 – 21, some serve younger youth aged 16 – 18, and some programs serve both age groups. Youth meeting the age requirement who have either dropped out of high school or have graduated from high school but need basic skills enhancement and meet the income requirements are eligible.

Runaway and Homeless Youth (RHY)

In keeping with the federal Runaway and Homeless Youth Act (RHYA) of 1978 and current New York State RHYA regulations, DYCD funds programs that are designed to protect runaway and homeless youth and, whenever possible, reunite them with their families. In cases where reunification is not possible, these programs are designed to help youth progress from crisis and transitional care to independent living. Program activities and experiences are designed to assist youth in becoming healthy, caring, and responsible adults.

Summer Youth Employment Program (SYEP)

The purpose of the Summer Youth Employment Program (SYEP) is to provide New York City youth, between the ages of 14 through 21, with summer employment and educational experiences that build on their individual strengths and incorporate youth development principles. SYEP comprises two summer programs: the Stand-Alone summer program and the WIA In-School Youth (ISY) summer program. Over the years, between 25,000 to as many as 50,000 youth annually have received summer jobs through these programs. Many young people work in a variety of entry-level jobs at community-based organizations and government agencies. Some examples include assisting with clerical duties in local hospitals and libraries; serving lunches at a senior center; helping children at a day care center; and helping with clean up at local parks.
