Introduction

This report provides a review of several agencies under the oversight of the Committee on Governmental Operations including, the Board of Elections (BOE), Office of Administrative Trials and Hearings (OATH), Financial Information Services Agency (FISA), Office of Payroll Administration (OPA), Office of Administrative Tax Appeals (OATA), the Department of Records and Information Services (DoRIS), and Community Boards. For each agency, the highlights of the Fiscal 2018 expense budget are presented as well as an analysis of contract funding, miscellaneous revenue, and capital funding where applicable. The report also reviews relevant sections of the Preliminary Mayor's Management Report for Fiscal 2017.

Fiscal 2018 Preliminary Budget Highlights

- BOE Fiscal 2018 Budget. The Board's Fiscal 2018 proposed budget of $98.6 million, is $11.4 million less than the average actual expenditures of $110 million from the previous six years. The budget includes $39.2 million in Personnel Services funding to support 505 full-time positions and over 36,000 poll workers. The Fiscal 2018 Preliminary Plan includes a new need that would baseline 30 voting technician positions at an annual cost of $1 million. BOE's Fiscal 2018 Budget is likely to be modified to recognize additional resources prior to Adoption.
- OATH Expense Budget. OATH's Fiscal 2018 Preliminary Budget totals $44.4 million, including $32.8 million to support 286 full-time positions.
 - Implementation of the Criminal Justice Reform Act (CJRA). OATH's Fiscal 2018 Preliminary Budget includes additional funding of $2.9 million in order to implement the CJRA, which is anticipated to increase OATH's caseload by over 48,000 hearings. Of the total, $1.4 million is Personal Services funding to support 22 new positions.
- FISA Expense Budget. FISA's proposed budget for Fiscal 2018 totals $109 million, including Personal Services funding of $50 million to support 456 full-time positions. FISA will incur additional lease expenses for its co-located headquarters with the Office of Payroll Administration, which was included in last year's Executive Financial Plan. In recent years, FISA's actual expenditures have been significantly lower than its budgeted resources resulting in year-end surpluses.
 - Citywide Savings Program. FISA will generate budget savings of $2.1 million in Fiscal 2017 and $2.2 million in Fiscal 2018, as part of the Citywide Savings Program through the reduction of Information Technology (IT) maintenance expenditures associated with newer equipment. Additional savings comes from Personal Services accruals from delays in hiring.
- OPA Expense Budget. OPA's proposed budget for Fiscal 2018 totals $17.3 million, including Personal Services funding of $15.5 million to support 179 full-time positions.
 - Citywide Savings Program. Since the Adoption of the Fiscal 2017 Budget, OPA has identified budget savings totaling $328,000 in Fiscal 2017 and $354,000 in Fiscal 2018 by working with FISA to perform certain IT functions more efficiently with in-house staff or by combining maintenance agreements to reduce costs.

- OATA (Tax Commission) Expense Budget. The Fiscal 2018 Preliminary Budget for the Office of Administrative Tax Appeals totals $5 million, including $4.7 million in Personal Services funding to support 44 full-time positions. Of that Personal Services total, $3.3 million is allocated to the Tax Commission for 31 positions and $1.4 million is allocated to the Tax Appeals Tribunal for 13 positions.
- DoRIS Expense Budget. DORIS' proposed budget for Fiscal 2018 totals $7.3 million, including $3.8 million in Personal Services funding to support 59 full-time positions. The Preliminary Budget includes a budget action that would add eight positions responsible for the digitization of records that was previously done by a contractor.
- Community Boards Expense Budget. The Fiscal 2018 Preliminary Budget for the Community Boards totals $17.3 million, including $12.5 million in Personal Services funding. Each board receives a standard allocation of approximately $234,000 for Personal Services and Other Than Personnel Services expenses. There are 59 community boards in New York City: 12 are located in Manhattan; 12 in the Bronx; 14 in Queens; 18 in Brooklyn; and three on Staten Island.

Board of Elections

The Board of Elections (the Board or BOE) conducts, as specified by State law, all elections within the City of New York. The Board has a central office and five borough offices. The Board receives and examines candidates' petitions, registers voters either by mail or on specified registration days, and keeps current the City's voter registration lists. The Board staff holds and keeps minutes of all of the Commissioners' meetings.

The difference of Fiscal 2017 Adopted Budget compared to Fiscal 2018 Preliminary Budget.*

Fiscal 2017

In the Preliminary Budget, the Board's expense budget for Fiscal 2017 totals $132.4 million, including $54.7 million in Personnel Services funding to support 505 full-time positions and over 36,000 poll workers. The Board's Fiscal 2017 budget is $22 million more than the average actual expenditures of $110 million from the previous six years. In Fiscal 2017, the Board conducted the presidential elections which accounts for much of the aforementioned increase.

Fiscal 2018

The Board's Fiscal 2018 proposed budget of $98.6 million, includes $39.2 million in Personal Services funding. The Preliminary Budget includes a new need that would baseline 30 voting technician positions at an annual cost of $1 million. The BOE's budget varies significantly from year to year based on the election cycle. Large decreases in the PS and OTPS budgets are common at this stage of the budget cycle. BOE's Fiscal 2018 Budget is likely to be modified to recognize additional resources prior to Adoption. Funding for any deficits are added to the Board's budget by the fiscal year's end.

Actual Expenditures

BOE Actuals Dollars in Thousands	Fiscal Year
	2011	2012	2013	2014	2015	2016
Personal Services	$48,487	$57,651	$52,682	$57,410	$51,391	$54,045

Agency Total	$102,874	$109,839	$107,473	$116,163	$106,755	$116,672

From Fiscal 2011 through 2016, the Board's total expenditures averaged $110 million per year, peaking at $116.6 million in Fiscal 2016. The Board's Fiscal 2018 Preliminary Budget of $98.6 million is $11.4 million less than its six-year spending average. The BOE's budget varies significantly from year to year based on the election cycle.

BOE Contract Chart

The New York City Charter mandates the preparation of a Contract Budget to identify expenditures for contractual services, which are defined as any technical, consultant or personal service provided to the City by means of a contract. The Contract Budget is actually a subset of the OTPS portion of the City's Expense Budget. The Administration prepares a Contract Budget twice each fiscal year. The Fiscal 2018 Preliminary Contract Budget totals $14.4 billion for procurement expenditures across all agencies.

TOTAL	$37,822	40	$29,208	37

The BOE's contract budget for Fiscal 2018 totals $29.2 million and accounts for 29.6 percent of the Board's total budget. The budget decreases by $8.6 million when compared to the Fiscal 2017 Adopted Budget. This is because the BOE's budget is allocated on a year to year basis and, as such, hasn't been finalized for Fiscal 2018. Like previous BOE budgets, additional funding is typically recognized in subsequent financial plans throughout the year.

BOE Preliminary Mayor's Management Report (PMMR)

As an independent agency, the Board is not required to provide performance measurements for the PMMR. The data in the PMMR is collected from the Board's annual report. Four-month actual data is not provided.

Office of Administrative Trials and Hearings

The Office of Administrative Trials and Hearings (OATH) is the City's central, independent administrative law court. OATH has two divisions: the OATH Trials Division and the OATH Hearings Division. OATH Trials Division adjudicates a wide range of issues that can be referred by any City agency, board or commission. The Hearings Division, conducts hearings on summonses that can be issued by 25 different enforcement agencies for alleged violations of City rules and regulations.

With a focus on providing convenience to the New Yorkers who are summoned to its courts, OATH has undertaken a transformation of administrative law adjudications. OATH has redesigned all of the rules, procedures, forms and documents across its Hearings Division, with the aim of making the hearing processes standard and understandable regardless of the City enforcement agencies that issued the summons.

The difference of Fiscal 2017 Adopted Budget compared to Fiscal 2018 Preliminary Budget.*

OATH's Fiscal 2018 Preliminary Budget totals $44.4 million, including $32.8 million to support 286 full-time positions. The Office is funded entirely from City funds. The increase in OATH's Fiscal 2018 Budget results primarily from the identification of new needs since Adoption of the Fiscal 2017 Budget, most notably additional resources for the implementation of the Criminal Justice Reform Act (CJRA).

Implementation of the Criminal Justice Reform Act (CJRA). OATH's Fiscal 2018 Preliminary Budget includes additional funding of $2.9 million in order to implement the CJRA, which is anticipated to increase OATH's caseload by over 48,000 hearings. Of the total, $1.4 million is Personal Services funding to support 22 new positions. The remaining funding is allocated to facility renovations to accommodate the increased volume of hearings, security guard coverage, community service programs, and additional supplies and equipment.

The recently enacted CJRA has reclassified certain criminal law misdemeanors and violations, and has added the option of administrative civil law adjudication. Summonses for these violations can now be adjudicated at OATH instead of the Criminal Courts.

OATH Fine Revenue

OATH generates revenue for the City through the collection of fines issued for various violations. There are three main categories of fines that comprises the Office's fine revenue that include Health Department fines, Taxi and Limousine Commission fines and Environmental Control Board fines. Fine revenue generated by OATH totaled $155 million in Fiscal 2016.

In Thousands	Actual					Planned

It is projected that OATH will generate combined tribunal fine revenue of $124.5 million in Fiscal 2017. ECB fine revenue which includes violations from over 20 different agencies, represented 79 percent of OATH's total fine revenue in Fiscal 2016. Revenue generated through Health Department fines has decreased since peaking at $53.6 million in Fiscal 2012. The decrease is due in large part to the Council's efforts to reform the City's restaurant grading system. In October 2013, the Council passed legislation that improved the oversight and performance of the restaurant inspection system. In March of 2014, the Council and the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene announced new restaurant grading rules designed to reduce fines and provide additional educational resources to help restaurants maintain high health standards throughout New York City.

Financial Information Services Agency

The Financial Information Services Agency (FISA or the Agency) controls and coordinates data processing functions and operations for the City's payroll, accounting and purchasing systems; manages the citywide Financial Management System (FMS); generates and distributes reports for accounting and budget oversight; and provides on-line access to budgetary or related data for use by city managers and others. FISA also maintains the operational integrity of the Payroll Management System (PMS) and the Integrated Comprehensive Contracts Information System (ICCIS). FISA is jointly controlled by the Mayor and the Comptroller, as defined by the City Charter.

The difference of Fiscal 2017 Adopted Budget compared to Fiscal 2018 Preliminary Budget.*

FISA's proposed budget for Fiscal 2018 totals $109 million, including Personal Services funding of $50 million to support 456 full-time positions. FISA relies entirely on City tax-levy funding. The $4 million increase in the Agency's Fiscal 2018 Budget is the result of additional lease expenses for its co-located headquarters with the Office of Payroll Administration, which was included in last year's Executive Financial Plan. In recent years, FISA's actual expenditures have been significantly lower than its budgeted resources resulting in year-end surpluses.

- Citywide Savings Program. FISA will generate budget savings of $2.1 million in Fiscal 2017 and $2.2 million in Fiscal 2018, as part of the Citywide Savings Program introduced since Adoption. The largest savings, $1.6 million in Fiscal 2018, comes from the reduction of IT maintenance expenditures associated with newer equipment. Additional savings comes from PS accruals from delays in hiring.

Citywide Information Technology Systems

In coordination with several City agencies, FISA plays a significant role in the planning, maintenance and management of upgrades of many of the City's large scale IT systems. For Fiscal 2018, OTPS funding for the maintenance of IT systems managed by FISA include:

- $8.7 million for the CityTime municipal employee timekeeping system;
- $6.9 million for the Financial Management System (FMS) 3, the City's computerized accounting and financial data management system;
- $5.5 million for the New York City Automated Payroll System (NYCAPS), the City's employee self-service system that allows instant access to human resources, payroll, tax, and benefits data; and
- $1.1 million for the Pension Payroll Management System (PPMS).

FISA's Fiscal 2018 Contract Budget totals $29.3 million for 64 contracts which account for 27 percent of FISA's total budget. Because FISA is responsible for maintaining several citywide IT systems, contracts for data processing services comprises 94 percent of its total contract budget.

FISA Capital Program

FISA's Fiscal 2018-2027 Preliminary Ten-Year Capital Strategy totals $1.4 billion for upgrades and equipment related to the City's IT systems that include CityTime, FMS, NYCAPS and the PPMS. The majority of this funding resides in lump sum project lines which operate as holding codes. Funding is transferred from this line as needs are identified. Not included in the Ten-Year Capital Strategy is capital funding in the current fiscal year. For Fiscal 2017, FISA's Capital Budget includes $16.7 million. Uncommitted capital funding for Fiscal 2017 will be rolled into future fiscal years.

Office of Payroll Administration

The Office of Payroll Administration (OPA) is responsible for establishing payroll policy, coordinating payroll related matters between City agencies and affected covered organizations, and developing uniform procedures for payroll processing and development. OPA is also responsible for the distribution of payrolls, the accounting for payrolls, administration of payroll deductions, check distribution services, maintenance of the integrity and accuracy of the Payroll Management System (PMS), and supporting the development and implementation of PMS.

The difference of Fiscal 2017 Adopted Budget compared to Fiscal 2018 Preliminary Budget.*

OPA's proposed budget for Fiscal 2018 totals $17.3 million, including Personal Services funding of $15.5 million to support 179 full-time positions. The agency relies almost entirely on City tax-levy funding. The slight increase in OPA's Fiscal 2018 budget when compared to the Fiscal 2017 Adopted Budget is the result of adjustments in previous financial plans, including costs related to the collective bargaining agreement. Since the Adoption of the Fiscal 2017 Budget, OPA has identified budget savings totaling $328,000 in Fiscal 2017 and $354,000 in Fiscal 2018 by working with FISA to perform certain IT functions more efficiently with in-house staff or by combining maintenance agreements thereby reducing costs. The current year budget includes Other Categorical funding totaling $452,000 from the Management Benefits Fund for the reimbursement of health club membership fees for City employees.

Office of Administrative Tax Appeals

The Office of Administrative Tax Appeals (OATA) consists of two divisions: the Tax Commission and the Tax Appeals Tribunal. The Tax Commission is responsible for conducting hearings on appeals of real property tax assessments determined and released by the Department of Finance each year. The agency is responsible for reviewing applications for which exemptions are sought, but denied by the Department of Finance. The Tax Appeals Tribunal will conduct hearings to resolve disputes between taxpayers and the New York City Department of Finance regarding taxes other than the New York City real property tax, including business income and excise taxes.

*The difference of Fiscal 2017 Adopted Budget compared to Fiscal 2018 Preliminary Budget.

The Fiscal 2018 Preliminary Budget for the Office of Administrative Tax Appeals totals $5 million, including $4.7 million in Personal Services funding to support 44 full-time positions. Of that Personal Services total, $3.3 million is allocated to the Tax Commission for 31 positions and $1.4 million is allocated to the Tax Appeals Tribunal for 13 positions. City tax-levy funding accounts for the agency's entire budget.

Application Fee Revenue

The Tax Commission generates miscellaneous revenue by charging a $175 fee on applications for correction where the assessed value on the notice of property value is $2 million or more. In Fiscal 2016, the Tax Commission generated $1.8 million in revenue from applications fees.

Department of Records and Information Services

The Commissioner of the Department of Records and Information Services (DORIS or the Department) serves as the chief archivist, librarian and records officer for the Mayor, Borough Presidents, and City Council. DORIS is composed of the municipal archives, visitor center, city hall library, and municipal records management division. DORIS operates records storage facilities in two locations with a combined capacity of one million cubic feet, and provides records management services to 50 city agencies, ten courts, and the five district attorneys' offices. DORIS preserves and provides public access to 221,000 cubic feet of historically valuable city records and photographs, and a unique collection of more than 354,000 books, official government reports, studies and other publications.

The difference of Fiscal 2017 Adopted Budget compared to Fiscal 2018 Preliminary Budget.*

DORIS' proposed budget for Fiscal 2018 totals $7.3 million, including $3.8 million in Personal Services funding to support 59 full-time positions. The Preliminary Budget includes a budget action that would add eight positions responsible for the digitization of records that was previously done by a contractor. This action results in an increase in PS funding and a decrease in funding for contractual services. State funding of $300,000 is recognized in Fiscal 2017 from the Local Government Records Management Improvement Fund.

Community Boards

There are 59 community boards in New York City: 12 are located in Manhattan; 12 in the Bronx; 14 in Queens; 18 in Brooklyn; and three on Staten Island. Each community board is responsible for cooperating with, advising, and assisting any public agency or office concerning matters that relate to the welfare of the district and its residents. Each board submits recommendations to the Mayor, Borough President, City Council, and other City officials in the interest of the district. Every board conducts public hearings and submits recommendations on the capital and expense budgets. Community Boards play an advisory role in zoning and other land use issues, in community planning, and in the coordination of municipal services. Each board is required to hire a full-time district manager and other staff to run a district office, which is responsible for resolving residents' service delivery problems.

The difference of Fiscal 2017 Adopted Budget compared to Fiscal 2018 Preliminary Budget.*

The Fiscal 2018 Preliminary Budget for the Community Boards totals $17.3 million, including $12.5 million in Personal Services funding. Each board receives a standard allocation of approximately $234,000 for Personal Services and Other Than Personnel Services expenses. The Community Boards receive additional funding for rent and energy costs that vary from board to board. In Fiscal 2017 various Community Boards received private grants which accounts for their other categorical funding. Community Board headcounts range between two to four positions.
