Council member Margaret Chin joins LES BID in honoring 7th Precinct Police Officers of the Year

New York, NY – Today, Council member Chin joined New York District Attorney Cy Vance, in honoring Police Officer Kerion Mathison, Police Officer Alexander Wong, and Police Officer Michael Wong, of the 7th Precinct, for their exemplary performance in police work.

Council member Chin congratulated the officers on their individual achievements, saying, “I am proud that District-1 has such dedicated and courageous individuals serving Lower Manhattan and keeping our families safe. The three officers honored here today have facilitated hundreds of arrests and kept drugs and illegal weapons off of our streets. In addition to this, all three officers have taken on enhanced duties within law enforcement. They have conducted intelligence work, recidivists and parolee monitoring, as well as motor vehicle enforcement. I want to recognize the honorees for their dedication to the City of New York and the Lower Manhattan Community. Each day they live up to the oath they took to protect our communities and they are worthy of our esteem.”
