Brownie (and Cookie) Points for Brewer

WHAT: Girl Scout Troop 3068 Brings Cookies to the West Side
WHO: Council Member Gale A. Brewer and Ziola Gomez, Troop Leader
WHEN: Saturday March 21, 2009, 12pm
WHERE: District Office, 563 Columbus Avenue at 87th Street

The Upper West Side's Troop 3068 of the Girls Scouts of America has been part of the neighborhood for 10 years, through the dedicated efforts of Troop Leader Ziola Gomez. In the past, the troop had difficulty finding a permanent meeting location yet with the help of Council Member Gale A. Brewer, now regularly meets at the Joan Of Arc Beacon Center. The diverse group of young girls has been nationally honored, recognized and awarded for their contributions to the community through innovative service projects.

This Saturday, March 21, 2009, City Council Member Gale A. Brewer is opening her doors for the Girl Scouts of the Upper West Side to serve as the delivery site for their infamous cookies! Girl Scouts cookies have a reputation of their own for their great taste, but are even better as all the proceeds go directly to the troop. Troops will meet in Council Member Brewer's District Office to accept the cookie delivery, take inventory and distribute them to the girls for sale.

The Girls Scouts Of America is a strong organization that was established over 90 years ago which aims to give young girls and ladies leadership training and confidence to live good lives. Girl Scout cookies are sold to raise money to maintain and improve facilities and activities for the girls. All proceeds go to the troop in your area. If you are interested in purchasing cookies to support this great organization for the benefit of your local community, buy from a troop in your neighborhood, or visit www.girlscoutcookies.org to locate a troop closest to you.
