

Service Category	Service Category description
Communications	Communications services include interpretation services, telecommunication and translation services.
Education Supports/Community Engagement	Education Supports/Community Engagement services include academic supports, community engagement, diploma/GED training, language skills, life skills, literacy and recreational services.
Facility Management Services	Facility Management consists of the coordination of the physical facility with the people who work and/or live there.
Family Supports	Family Supports services include adoption services, child care, child support enforcement, foster care services and parenting services.
Food Services	Food and nutrition services consist of services to provide meals and/or nutrition information to promote health and well-being. Food Services may be offered at program locations or in clients' homes.
Health Services	Health services include medical services such as: dental, diagnostic testing, emergency treatment, family planning, medication management, nursing, pregnancy services and primary care. These services also include mental health services, rehabilitation and therapy, substance abuse services and public health services including: disease control, emergency preparedness and response, environmental health and health education and supports.
Household Management and Care	Household management and care services include home attendant, homemaking, and housekeeping services.
Housing and Shelter Services	Housing and shelter services include drop-in centers, homelessness prevention, housing and shelter services.
Justice Services	Justice services include alternative justice management, discharge/re-entry, non-secure placement, restitution collections and secure detention services.
Legal Supports	Legal Services consist of work performed by legal professionals and may include processing paperwork and documentation, court-based services, representation, or other services to assist with legal matters on behalf of a client and his/her needs.
Outreach Services	Outreach consists of planned activities designed to bring the existing service delivery system to a defined population or program participants in a designated area. Outreach services are intended to engage or assess individuals potentially in need and provide information or linkages to community-based services.
Supportive Services	Supportive services include caregiver support, case management, conflict resolution/mediation, court appoint guardian services, entitlements assistance, financial counseling, preventative services and respite care services.

Service Category	Service Category description
Transportation Services	Transportation consists of vehicular services to carry individuals from one place to another. Transportation services may include facilitation of reservations, dispatch, vehicular routing, private transportation, and passenger pick-up for individuals or groups in a secure or non-secure setting. Transportation services are targeted towards persons who require such service because their destination is beyond their walking (or driving) ability and they have no alternative means of transportation, or because public transportation is beyond the individual's abilities.
Workforce Development	Workforce development services include job placement services, job/vocational training and work readiness services.