

	New Street Name	Present Street Name	Geographical Limits	Borough	Sponsoring Member(s)	Background of Honoree
1	Yolanda Garcia Way	Third Avenue	Both sides of the street, from 156 th to 159 th Streets	Bronx	Arroyo	Ms. Garcia was age 53 at the time of her passing in February 2005. Ms. Garcia was one of the founders of Nos Quedamos/We Stay, a community group in her Melrose neighborhood that worked to prevent evictions of people who lived and worked in her neighborhood.
2	Detective Luis Suarez Way	Simpson Street	Between Westchester Avenue and East 167th Street	Bronx	Arroyo	Detective Suarez died in 2007 at the age of 61. Detective Suarez was a community affairs officer in the 41st Precinct for more than 20 years. The location chosen is the original home of the 41st Precinct.
3	Arlington Leon Eastmond, Sr. Way	Leggett Avenue	Truxton Street and Dupont Street	Bronx	Arroyo	Mr. Eastmond died in 1981. He founded the Eastmond Boiler Company, a company which was located on Leggett Avenue for many years. Under Mr. Eastmond's leadership, the company provided the opportunity for numerous individuals to receive on the job training, and go on to successful careers.
4	Fred J. Mazzarello Way	None	At the intersection of 14th Road and College Point Boulevard	Queens	Avella	Mr. Mazzarello was 82 at the time of his death. Mr. Mazzarello founded the College Point Board of Trade in 1969, and served as its President for many years. Mr. Mazzarello also served as Chairman of the College Point Memorial Day parade for over a decade.
5	Father John J. Gribbon Way	245th Street	Northern Boulevard and Alameda Avenue	Queens	Avella	Father Gribbon (1925-2005) was a priest with the Church of St. Anastasia in Douglaston for 39 years. In addition to these duties, Father Gribbon served as chaplain for the Little Neck-Douglaston Volunteer Ambulance Corps.
6	USMC Lance Corporal John Carlo Kopacska Place	None	At the intersection of 158th Street and Riverside Drive	Queens	Avella	Lance Corporal Kopacska enlisted in the Marines in 1965 and was killed in the line of duty during the Vietnam War in May 1967 at the age of 21.
7	Robert Woolis Way	North side of West 95th Street	Between Columbus Avenue and Central Park West	Manhattan	Brewer	Mr. Woolis (1924-2006) in 1972 co-founded the Mitchell Lama Residents' Council with Congressman Charles Rangel. Mr. Woolis served as co-chair for many years, advocating for the rights of Mitchell-Lama residents. Mr. Woolis, a longtime Upper East Side resident, also served in the Navy Air Corps during World War II.
8	Doris Rosenblum Way	South side of West 94th Street	Between Columbus Avenue and Central Park West	Manhattan	Brewer	Ms. Rosenblum (1925-1996) was an original member of the Mitchell Lama Residents' Council, and for six years, served as co-chair. She served as President of the Stryckers Bay Neighborhood Council, an organizations in support of affordable housing. Ms. Rosenblum also served for many years on the Board of Directors of Stryckers Bay Apartments. Ms. Rosenbloom also served as historian for Manhattan, and was district manager for 12 years of Manhattan Community Board 7.

	New Street Name	Present Street Name	Geographical Limits	Borough	Sponsoring Member(s)	Background of Honoree
9	James D. Garst Way	Southwest side of West 94th Street	Between Columbus and Amsterdam Avenues	Manhattan	Brewer	Mr. Garst (1926-2006) was a longtime advocate for affordable housing, serving as founder of the New York State Tenants and Neighbors Coalition, and was a longtime Board member of the Mitchell-Lama Council. Mr. Garst was also a member of the merchant marine.
10	Jack Thompson Drive	116th Road	Between Springfield Boulevard and Nashville Boulevard	Queens	Comrie	Mr. Thompson was the President of the Cambria Heights Civic Association.
11	Reverend Gene McGhee Street	None	Intersection of 163rd Street and 107th Avenue	Queens	Comrie	Reverend McGhee was 61 at the time of his death on September 2, 2007. For greater than 30 years, Reverend McGhee was pastor of The Bethlehem Church of God in Christ. In such position, Reverend McGhee performed numerous charitable endeavors.
12	James M. Hughes, Sr. Place	175th Street	Between 110th Avenue and 111th Avenue	Queens	Comrie	James M. Hughes, Sr. was an ardent and effective civic leader, a loyal member of Amity Baptist Church, a successful entrepreneur, a faithful Master Mason and distinguished Chairman of the Brinkerhoff Action Association, which promotes civic pride and informs homeowners and residents of their rights and privileges from municipalities undertaking projects.
13	Matthew Henson Plaza	None	Triangle bounded by Frederick Douglass Boulevard, Macombs Place and West 150th Street	Manhattan	Dickens	Mr. Henson (1866-1955), a resident of Harlem's Dunbar apartments for many years, was an Arctic explorer, who planted the American flag on the North Pole. Mr. Henson is buried in Arlington National Cemetery.
14	Lt. Robert Nagel Way	None	At the intersection of East 114th Street and 5th Avenue	Manhattan	Dickens	Fire Lieutenant Robert Nagel began his career with the FDNY in 1973, and was promoted to Lieutenant on June 9, 1988. He served at Engine Company 58 in Harlem from June 9, 1990, until his death in the line of duty on 9/11/01.
15	A. Philip Randolph Boulevard	145th Street	From the eastern corners of Edgecombe Avenue to the Harlem River Drive	Manhattan	Dickens, Jackson	Mr. Randolph (1889-1979), a longtime Harlem resident, was a long time labor and civil rights leader. Mr. Randolph was a leader in the anti-segregation movement.
16	Detective Russel Timoshenko Way	Durant Avenue	Between Buffalo Street and Hopkins Avenue	Staten Island	Eugene, Ignizio	Detective Timoshenko, a police officer with the 71st Precinct, was shot in the line of duty on July 9, 2007 and died five days later at the age of 23. Detective Timoshenko was promoted posthumously to Detective. Detective Timoshenko was also posthumously awarded the NYPD's Medal of Honor.
17	Thomas Joseph Sgroi Way	None	At the northeast corner of 15th Avenue and 53rd Street	Brooklyn	Felder	Mr. Sgroi, 45, was killed on 9/11/01. At the time of his death, he was employed by Marsh and McLennan as Vice President for Technology and Information Services. Mr. Sgroi was born and raised in the Borough Park area. Mr. Sgroi was an active congregant at St. Francis de Chantel Church in Borough Park, where his mother worked for almost 40 years.

	New Street Name	Present Street Name	Geographical Limits	Borough	Sponsoring Member(s)	Background of Honoree
18	Priscilla Celano Way	None	At the southwest corner of 13th Avenue at 59th Street	Brooklyn	Felder	Ms. Celano worked for Brooklyn's Community Board 12 for 24 years, including the last 20 as District Manager, until she retired in 2002. Ms. Celano co-founded the Council of Neighborhood Organizations that serves the Brooklyn Community Board 12 area in 1978.
19	John F. Denton Way	East 92nd Street	Between Flatlands Avenue and Avenue J	Brooklyn	Fidler	Mr. Denton (1899-1985) was a long time resident of Canarsie and a historian of Canarsie. His column, entitled "Little Old Canarsie", ran in the "Canarsie Courier" for many years.
20	Bill Reinhardt Way	None	At the southwest corner of Flatbush Avenue and Fillmore Avenue	Brooklyn	Fidler	Bill Reinhardt, who died in 2005 at the age of 69, founded Fillmore Realty at Flatbush Avenue and Fillmore Avenue in 1966. Mr. Reinhardt built up the business, and presently, it employs greater than 500 people from Marine Park and surrounding communities. Through Mr. Reinhardt, Fillmore Realty was involved in a number of civic endeavors, including Toys for Tots and the Flatlands Volunteer Ambulance and First Aid Corps.
21	Firefighter James Raymond Coyle Way	Avenue R	Between East 35th Street and East 36th Street	Brooklyn	Fidler	Name previously approved with change of location.
22	Ms. Rachel E. Spivey Boulevard	East 169th Street	Between Third Avenue and Webster Avenue	Bronx	Foster	Ms. Spivey, who died in 2005, was Executive Director of the Claremont Neighborhood Centers, Inc. for a number of years. Ms. Spivey received the 2002 New York State Woman of Distinction Award from State Senator Pedro Espada, Jr. Ms. Spivey was also active with Bronx Community Board 3 and at Bronx Lebanon Hospital.
23	Charles Prince Place	Jackson Avenue	Between East 166th Street and Home Street	Bronx	Foster	Mr. Prince (1924-2005) served in a number of capacities, including as Chairman of the Southeast Bronx Neighborhood Center, and the Morrisania Revitalization Corporation, Inc. In addition, he chaired the Municipal Services Committee of Bronx Community Board 3.
24	Hilton White Way	Cauldwell Avenue	Between East 161st Street and East 163rd Street	Bronx	Foster	Hilton White was an important figure in the history of the Bronx and in the history of American sports. From the mid 1950's through the late 1960's, Mr. White ran a community basketball program called The Falcons that taught discipline, pride and respect for academic excellence to hundreds of young people in the Bronx. He was also one of the first black basketball coaches at the American International College in Springfield, Massachusetts.
25	Rabbi Avraham Schechter Way	72nd Drive	Between 147th Street and 150th Street	Queens	Gennaro	Rabbi Schechter was a member of Queens Community Board 8 for 26 years, and was the Area Chairman of the Zoning Committee. Rabbi Schechter also co-founded the Jewish Action Committee, United Yeshiva, as well as serving as the editor of the Voice of Mid-Queens newspaper.

	New Street Name	Present Street Name	Geographical Limits	Borough	Sponsoring Member(s)	Background of Honoree
26	Rabbi Solomon Goldman Way	Utopia Parkway	From the Long Island Expressway to 67th Avenue	Queens	Gennaro	Rabbi Goldman served for 36 years as Rabbi of the Utopia Jewish Center, and as Rabbi Emeritus following his retirement.
27	Firefighter Joey Graffagnino Place	None	At the southwest corner of 77th Street and 13th Avenue	Queens	Gentile	Firefighter Graffagnino (1973-2007) was a lifelong resident of Dyker Heights, Brooklyn. A 23 year veteran of the New York City Fire Department, Firefighter Graffagnino was killed in the line of duty August 18, 2007 while fighting a fire at 130 Liberty Street, the former Deutsche Bank building.
28	Congressman Thomas J. Manton Boulevard	North and South side of Queens Boulevard	Between 38th Street and 58th Street	Queens	Gioia	Mr. Manton (1932-2007) was a New York City Council Member from 1970 until 1984, and then was a member of Congress from 1985 until 1998.
29	Firefighter Raymond W. Hauber Way	None	Ettingville Boulevard at the southwest corner of Wilson Avenue	Staten Island	Ignizio	. Firefighter Hauber, who died in 2007, at the age of 47, was a lifetime resident of the Eltingville area. Mr. Hauber was a New York City firefighter for 17 years, and he worked many 12 hour shifts at ground zero following 9/11/01.
30	Dave Brennan's Elks Way	None	At the intersection of Wainwright Avenue at Richmond Avenue	Staten Island	Ignizio	Mr. Brennan, a veteran of the Korean War, was very active in veterans' affairs, serving as among other capacities, County Commander of the American Legion, and as a member of Catholic War Veterans and Korean War veterans. He was also trustee chairman of the Elks Lodge, located at Wainwright and Richmond Avenue. It is for that reason that the request is for the co-naming to read "Dave Brennan's Elks Way".
31	Lt. John H. Martinson Way	None	At the southwest corner of Oakdale Street and Preston Avenue	Staten Island	Ignizio	Lieutenant Martinson served in the NYPD for four years, and then the FDNY for 14 years. He was killed in the line of duty on January 3, 2008. His family has lived at the location where the proposed co-naming would occur since 1929.
32	Reverend Dr. Alfoyd Alston Way	None	At the corner of West 125th Street and Amsterdam Avenue	Manhattan	Jackson	Reverend Alston founded the Antioch Baptist Church. Reverend Alston, in 1996, established B.B.Q. King, which works toward community development and job creation.
33	W.E.B. DuBois Avenue	Bradhurst Avenue	From 141st Street to 155th Street	Manhattan	Jackson	Mr. DuBois (1868-1963) was one of the founders of the NAACP. He was a longtime resident of Harlem. Mr. DuBois also was a consultant to the United Nations, and received a Grand International Prize from the World Peace Council. Mr. DuBois was also an accomplished author.
34	Rev. Dr. Ollie B. Wells, Sr. Square	None	At the intersection of West 145th Street and Adam Clayton Powell, Jr. Boulevard	Manhattan	Jackson	Rev. Wells was senior pastor of the Union Baptist Church for 28 years. Under Rev. Wells' leadership, the Union Baptist Church provided services to the homeless and destitute, and advocated for affordable housing and the revitalization of Harlem.
35	Rita Venedam Place	None	At the northwest corner West 215th Street and Broadway	Manhattan	Jackson	Ms. Veredam was a long time resident of Inwood and a long time volunteer for veterans' causes. Ms. Veredam logged more than 50,000 volunteer hours at the Bronx and Manhattan VA hospitals.

	New Street Name	Present Street Name	Geographical Limits	Borough	Sponsoring Member(s)	Background of Honoree
36	Carlos Lezama Way	None	At the northeast corner of Brooklyn Avenue and St. John's Place	Brooklyn	James	Carlos Lezama, known as the father of the City's annual West Indian American Day Carnival, died on January 22, 2007. The original Carnival in New York City took place in Harlem, and beginning in the mid 1960's, Carlos Lezama directed his efforts, with his friend Rufus Goring, to firmly establishing Carnival in Brooklyn. By promoting the culture of Caribbean people and enriching the cultural life of New York City, Mr. Lezama was officially recognized and honored by four New York State governors, including Governors Nelson Rockefeller, Hugh Carey, Mario Cuomo and George Pataki, as well as every New York City Mayor since John Lindsay.
37	Benny A. Lyde Place	None	At the northeast corner of Lincoln Place and Brooklyn Avenue	Brooklyn	James	Mr. Lyde, a resident of Lincoln Place (age 21 at the time of his death) was shot on September 2, 2005, and later succumbed to his injuries. Mr. Lyde, a business management and computer science student at Long Island University at the time of his death, helped run Groundwork for Youth, a youth literacy program in his East New York neighborhood.
38	Corporal Julian Alberto Ramon Avenue	None	At the intersection of 45th Street and Kissena Boulevard	Queens	Liu	Marine Corporal Ramon was killed in Iraq on July 20, 2006. At the time of his death, Corporal Ramon was on his second tour of duty Iraq. He had lived at 137-60 45th Avenue since emigrating to the United States from Colombia at the age of 4.
39	Corporal Juan M. Alcantara Way	None	At the corner of 186th Street and Wadsworth Avenue	Manhattan	Martinez	Corporal Alcantara (1984-2007) lived in Washington Heights starting when he was five years old. He enlisted in the Army in 2004. Corporal Alcantara was killed in the line of duty in Iraq on August 6, 2007.
40	Miguel Amaro Way	None	At the southeast corner of West 190th Street and Audubon Avenue	Manhattan	Martinez	Mr. Amaro co-founded the Dominican Day Parade in 1982 and served as the first President of the parade.
41	NYS Senator Hon. Mark W. Allen Way	None	Underneath the Clove Road street sign at the southeast corner of West Raleigh Avenue	Staten Island	McMahon	Name previously approved with change of location
42	NYS Assemblyman 2000-2007 Hon. John W. Lavelle Way	None	Forest Avenue at the southeast corner of Silver Lake Park Road	Staten Island	McMahon	Assemblyman John Lavelle (1949-2007) served in the New York State Assembly from 2001 to the time of his death in 2007. Assemblyman Lavelle served on the Education Committee and he was the Chair of the Assembly's Subcommittee on Students With Special Needs. Assemblyman Lavelle was known as a champion for the homeless, the disabled, immigrants and advocated gun control.

	New Street Name	Present Street Name	Geographical Limits	Borough	Sponsoring Member(s)	Background of Honoree
43	Richard Dickenson Way	None	Tysen Street at southwest corner of Gorden Place	Staten Island	McMahon	Mr. Dickenson, who died in 2006 at the age of 76, was Staten Island's borough historian from 1991 to the time of his death. Prior to taking that position, Mr. Dickenson researched Staten Island's African-American communities for the Sandy Ground Historical Society. He also served as historian for the Snug Harbor East Civic Association.
44	Luke M. Parlatore Way	None	Virginia Avenue at the southeast corner of Bay Street	Staten Island	McMahon	Mr. Parlatore died in 2002 from complications after a car accident, at the age of 17. After 9/11, Mr. Parlatore volunteered for the Red Cross and obtained supplies for workers at the World Trade Center site. Mr. Parlatore also received citations from the Vietnam Veterans' Association and the Alzheimer Foundation for his volunteer efforts.
45	Pfc. Nils George Thompson Way	None	At the intersection of Franklin Avenue at the southwest corner of Cassidy Place	Staten Island	McMahon	Nils George Thompson was killed in the line of duty in Iraq on August 4, 2005. Since his childhood, he always wanted to serve his country from having listened to stories of generations of servicemen before him.
46	James J. Keeley Way	None	At the intersection of School Road at the east side of Bay Street	Staten Island	McMahon	James J. Keeley passed away in July 2007. He was a World War II Veteran who was actively involved in his community serving as a leader for the Labetti American Legion Post, Staats American Legion Post, Boy Scouts, Trustee at St. Mary's Church, Chairman of the Community Board, Election Board, Democratic Committee for Richmond County, Community Planning Board, AARP, Pelican Athletic Club and East Shore Little League.
47	100th Anniversary Liedy's Shore Inn Way	None	At the intersection of Richmond Terrace at the southwest corner of LaFayette Avenue	Staten Island	McMahon	Liedy's Shore Inn has been established for over 100 years and has served the Staten Island and New York City communities with some of the most talented musicians in the music business such as Jimmy Mack and Bette Midler. It is a great supplier of New York City's rich music scene and for people who like to dance.
48	Crossing Guard Doris Allen Way	None	At the intersection of Castleton Avenue at the northeast corner of Broadway	Staten Island	McMahon	Doris Allen passed away on July 31, 2007. She always loved children and became a crossing guard in 1986 and was an active crossing guard until the age of 78. She was said to have treated each child as if they were her own and received a certificate of service achieving 20 years as a crossing guard from Police Commissioner Raymond Kelly on June 7, 2006.
49	Angelina J. (Jean) Esposito Way	None	At the intersection of Monroe Avenue at the southwest corner of Benziger Avenue	Staten Island	McMahon	Angelina J. (Jean) Esposito passed away on January 4, 2008. She was a teacher for more than 30 years, teaching kindergarten through second grade, as well as special education at several elementary schools. She also served as a member of the Great Kills Swim Club, the American Committee on Italian Migration and was a member of the Board of Directors for the Seton Hall Foundation for Learning.

	New Street Name	Present Street Name	Geographical Limits	Borough	Sponsoring Member(s)	Background of Honoree
50	Wagner Chaplain 1972 - 2007 Reverend Lyle R. Guttu Way	None	At the intersection of Howard Avenue at the southeast corner of Campus Road	Staten Island	McMahon	Reverend Lyle R. Guttu passed away on December 16, 2007. He was a Harvard University graduate who later went on to teach English at the Nichols School in Buffalo before deciding to enroll at Union Theological Seminary. Finally, he settled at Wagner College where he served in a variety of positions such as the Dean of Students, Special Assistant to the Academic Vice President, Vice Provost and Special Assistant to the President
51	Frank J. Reali III's Way	None	At the intersection of Gansevoort Avenue at the southwest corner of Victory Boulevard	Staten Island	McMahon	Frank J. Reali III died at the age of 36 in 2006 of a congenital heart condition. He was a star athlete of football and basketball who was part of the 1986 Susan Wagner team that won the PSAL city championship. He worked for his family real estate business as an agent for 16 years and was very dedicated to his wife and children. His death led to the formation of the Frank J. Reali III foundation, which pays for MRI's for all High School students to ensure their health prior to their participation in youth sports.
52	Frank H. Buttermark Place	None	At the intersection of Morrison Avenue at the southeast corner of Bement Avenue	Staten Island	McMahon	Frank H. Buttermark passed away on June 17, 2001. He was a master plumbing contractor and home builder who was also active in sports, politics and civil organizations. In the 1960's, he re-established and owned Staten Island's first semi-pro football team "The Staten Island Panthers." He helped establish the Staten Island Contractors Association and served as President. Mr. Buttermark served as Assistant to Borough President Robert T. Connors in 1966 and was the Staten Island Republican candidate for New York City Council seat in 1982.
53	David Villamarin Drive	None	At the intersection of Lake Avenue at the northwest corner of Richmond Terrace	Staten Island	McMahon	David Villamarin passed away on August 2, 2005. He was the President of Villa Marin Pontiac-Buick-GMC-Cadillac auto dealerships and was an active member of the Staten Island community, participating in many charitable organizations such as the CYO, the Boy Scouts of America and the Staten Island University Hospital.
54	Lt. Vic Navarra Way	None	At the intersection of East Raleigh Avenue at the southeast corner of North Burgher Avenue	Staten Island	McMahon	Lt. Vic Navarra passed away in December of 2007. He served as a New York City Firefighter and participated in the early New York City Marathons. He later became the start coordinator for many years for the Marathons, a thankless job that involved thousands of hours of preparation each year.
55	Firefighter Paul Hanlon Keating Avenue	None	At the intersection of Whitewood Avenue at the northwest corner of Bard Avenue	Staten Island	McMahon	Firefighter Paul Hanlon Keating passed away on September 11, 2001. He was a veteran firefighter for six years and was directing people to safety in the lobby of the South Tower on the morning of the attacks. He gave his life to save others.

	New Street Name	Present Street Name	Geographical Limits	Borough	Sponsoring Member(s)	Background of Honoree
56	Pearse O'Callaghan Boulevard	None	St. Paul's Avenue at the southeast corner of Beach Street	Staten Island	McMahon	Mr. O'Callaghan, a World War II veteran, was chairman of the Citizens Committee for Daytop Village, advocating for drug rehabilitation. Mr. O'Callaghan was active for many years in the Liberal Party, serving as County Chairman and Vice Chairman of the State Committee of the party. Mr. O'Callaghan also served as Director of the New York State Division of Cemeteries.
57	Frieda Zames Way	East 4th Street	Between 1st Avenue and Avenue A	Manhattan	Mendez	Frieda Zames passed away in June 2005. She served for several terms as the President of Disabled In Action of New York and was in the forefront of every struggle on behalf of people with disabilities. Her efforts can be directly credited with improving access for mobility-impaired people to the City's buses and subways. She also fought to insure that polling sites were truly accessible so that all citizens could exercise their most basic democratic right – to vote. Frieda Zames will be remembered for her passion, dedication, intelligence and strength, all which made her a champion of civil rights movements.
58	Army SPC. Alex Jimenez Way	None	37 Drive at the north corners of 104, 107 and 108th Streets	Queens	Monserrate	Army Spc. Alex Jimenez was kidnapped after an ambush south of Baghdad in May 2007. Approximately one year later, the U.S. military found and identified his body. He was killed in the line of duty.
59	Calle Colombia Way	None	82nd Street and 37th Avenue	Queens	Monserrate	This co-naming is requested due to the sizable number of individuals of Colombian descent who live in the Jackson Heights area. As evidence of this large population, Colombia's RCN-TV has its American headquarters in Jackson Heights.
60	Quisqueya Boulevard	None	Junction Boulevard and 37th Avenue (all corners)	Queens	Monserrate	This street co-naming is requested to honor the large native Dominican population in the Corona section of Queens. Presently, according to the online source Wikipedia, Corona is presently 70% Latino, with a large number of that population Dominican-Americans.
61	Leverich Memorial Church Way	None	At the northwest corner of 32nd Avenue and 102nd Street	Queens	Monserrate	Leverich Memorial Baptist Church is one of the oldest parishes in Corona, located at 102-19 32nd Avenue. It is a New York City landmark, and recently celebrated its 100th anniversary.
62	St. Brendan Way	Avenue O	Between East 12th Street and East 13th Street	Brooklyn	Nelson	St. Brendan's has been serving the Midwood community of Brooklyn as a Roman Catholic Church since 1907 as a place of worship, education and housing.
63	Eleven in Heaven Square-Rescue 5	Clove Road	Between Targee Street and Oder Avenue	Staten Island	Oddo	To honor Rescue 5 Battalion Chief Louis Modafferi, Lietenant Harvey Harrell and Firefighters John Bergin, Carl Bini, Mike Fiore, Andre Fletcher, Joseph Mascali, Douglas Miller, Jeffrey Palazzo, Nick Rossomando and Allen Tarasiewicz. All were killed in the 9-11 attacks.

	New Street Name	Present Street Name	Geographical Limits	Borough	Sponsoring Member(s)	Background of Honoree
64	Charles A. Langere Corner	None	At the intersection of Britton Avenue and Hay Street	Staten Island	Oddo	Charles A. Langere served with the New York City Housing Authority Police Department, the U.S. Department of Defense as a Police Officer and then was a Court Security Guard with the U.S. Marshal Service at the Federal Bankruptcy Court building in Lower Manhattan. He was also a delegate for the Staten Island P.B.A.-N.Y.C. Housing Authority Police Department, Patrolman's Benevolent Association Borough Trustee, a member of Staten Island Community Board 1 and Co-chair of its Youth Committee.
65	Loretta Quinn Way	McClellan Avenue	Between Jerome Avenue and Bionia Avenue	Staten Island	Oddo	Loretta Quinn passed away on October 26, 2007. She worked at Holy Rosary Church as an administrator, CCD instructor and substitute teacher. She also worked with the Catholic Youth Organization and was a counselor at the Gellar House. Later on, Loretta worked for Staten Island Community Board 2 as its youth service planning coordinator.
66	Joseph "Joe T" Trimarche Avenue	Vera Street	Between Naughton Avenue and Seaver Avenue	Staten Island	Oddo	Joseph Trimarche was very dedicated to his family and the Staten Island Little League by coaching, umpiring and finally as a board member. He also took tremendous pride in keeping the fields in the best possible condition and held the position of Head Groundskeeper for thirty years.
67	Rab Wilkinson Way	Deleware Avenue	Between Hylan Boulevard and Laconia Avenue	Staten Island	Oddo	Harry ("Rab") Wilkinson passed away on February 2, 2008. He was dedicated to contributing to the Staten Island Children's Campaign, the Staten Island September 11th Fund and the Staten Island branch of the Leukemia Society of America by lending his bowling lanes as the owner of Rab's Country Lanes to these local charities and hosting bowl-a-thons for Staten Islanders in need.
68	Brianna Gabrielle Gioia Corner	None	At the intersection of Rockland Avenue and Forest Hill Road	Staten Island	Oddo	Brianna Gabrielle Gioia was tragically killed on January 27, 2008 when the driver of the vehicle she was in lost control and veered into a gully and into oncoming traffic. As a result of the accident, District Attorney Daniel M. Donovan addressed the New York City Council's Committee on Public Safety regarding more stringent legislation for punishing dangerous and deadly drivers, citing Ms. Gioia's tragic accident.
69	Victor L. Prevosti Corner	None	At the intersection of Matthews Avenue and Davis Avenue	Staten Island	Oddo	Victor L. Prevosti passed away on June 4, 2007. He joined the Army Signal Corps in 1942 serving in the World War II China-Burma-India Theater. He became dedicated to the community, working to foster patriotism in our youth by serving as the Legislative Committee Chair of the New York State American Legion proposing legislation for a New York State Veteran's Cemetery in Richmond County. As a result of his efforts, in 2004, he was the recipient of the Matthew Baldassano Memorial Award from Gold Star Post number 1365.

	New Street Name	Present Street Name	Geographical Limits	Borough	Sponsoring Member(s)	Background of Honoree
70	Vera D'Agostino Way	None	At the intersection of Cuba Avenue and New Dorp Lane	Staten Island	Oddo	Vera D'Agostino (1949-2002) lived on Cuba Avenue for nearly 25 years. She was a dedicated wife, mother and friend, especially to her two daughters. Ms. D'Agostino was instrumental in her two daughters taking positions in service to the public, one as a nurse and the other as a social worker. Her passing at a young age from cancer, gave greater awareness of the need to fight the disease.
71	Donald C. Leo Way	Prescott Avenue	Between North Railroad Avenue and Richmond Road	Staten Island	Oddo	Mr. Leo lived life to the fullest and loved his family, his fiancé, his job and was generous in all aspects of life. He was tragically killed on May 30, 2008 when the crane he was operating at 91st Street and 1st Avenue in Manhattan came crashing down.
72	Joseph Anthony DeMeo Lane	8th Street	Between Rose Avenue and Ross Avenue	Staten Island	Oddo	Anthony DeMeo, born January 28, 1997 tragically passed away at the age of 8 on March 19, 2005. He was a very caring, kind and loving child who received an award while in kindergarten for "The Value of Respect" and another in first grade for "The Value of Friendship." Anthony's death led to greater review of household appliance safety.
73	Bangla Bazaar	Starling Avenue	Between Castle Hill Avenue and Unionport Road	Bronx	Palma	Bangla Bazaar, which means Bangla Mall in the Bangladeshi language, will honor the growth of the Bangladeshi community along Starling Avenue which offers Bangladeshi retail and food establishments contributing to the fusion of culture in the Bronx.
74	Jan Karski Corner	None	At the northeast corner of East 37th Street and Madison Avenue	Manhattan	Quinn	Mr. Karski (1914-2000) was a leader of the resistance movement against the Nazi Holocaust. Mr. Karski was credited with saving many lives by reporting on atrocities to the west. Mr. Karski later moved to the United States and became a distinguished professor at Georgetown University for 40 years. (Note: Mr. Karski did not ever live in New York. The location is where the Polish consulate stands. Within the consulate property, a statue of Mr. Karski stands.)
75	Aux P.O. Nicholas Pekearo Corner	None	At the northeast corner of Sullivan Street and Bleecker Street	Manhattan	Quinn	Nicholas Pekearo was tragically killed in the line of duty on March 14, 2007. He was an Auxiliary Police Officer in the Sixth Precinct for 4 years. Officer Pekearo grew up in Greenwich Village and attended Bayard Rustin High School and graduated from Empire State College while writing three novels by the time he was 28.
76	Aux P.O. Eugene Marshalik Corner	None	At the southwest corner of Sullivan Street and Bleecker Street	Manhattan	Quinn	Eugene Marshalik was tragically killed in the line of duty on March 14, 2007. He was an Auxiliary Police Officer in the Sixth Precinct for just over a year. A native of Russia, he immigrated to America at the age of five with his parents. He attended Stuyvesant High School where he became a top debater. He was attending New York University while aspiring to attend law school and be a prosecutor or an F.B.I. Agent.

	New Street Name	Present Street Name	Geographical Limits	Borough	Sponsoring Member(s)	Background of Honoree
77	Polar Bear Club Walk	West side of Stillwell Avenue	Between Bowery Street and the Boardwalk	Brooklyn	Recchia	The Polar Bear Club is the oldest winter bathing organization in the United States. Members of the Club swim in the Atlantic Ocean at Coney Island every Sunday from October through April.
78	Howard Lasher Way	None	On the center median on Neptune Avenue and the corner of West 6th Street	Brooklyn	Recchia	Hon. Howard Lasher passed away March 11, 2007. He was a political fixture in Brooklyn for over 35 years serving in the Assembly from 1973 – 1993, and later as Council Member from 1994 – 2001.
79	Firefighter Daniel F. Pujdak Way	Cook Street	Between Graham Avenue and Humboldt Street	Brooklyn	Reyna	Daniel F. Pujdak was a life-long resident of Greenpoint and was tragically killed while fighting a blaze at 146 Leonard Street.
80	Anthony Pastena, Sr. Corner	None	At the southeast corner of Graham Avenue and Withers Street	Brooklyn	Reyna	Mr. Pastena (1914-2004) was a 16 term president of the Society of St. Mary of the Snow, a cultural organization originally founded by the first Italians living in Greenpoint to give praise to their patron saint back in the town of Sanza, Italy. A World War II veteran, Mr. Pastena commanded the George Bahame American Legion post. Mr. Pastena was also active in the Saint Sabina Society and the Italian Federation.
81	Carmen B. Bermudez Place	Bathgate Avenue	Between East 178th Street and East 179th Street	Bronx	Rivera	Carmen B. Bermudez was the founder of the Upper Bronx Neighborhood Association for Puerto Rican Affairs, Inc (NAPRA). Under her leadership, the NAPRA was awarded a grant for a day care center which provided assistance to community children with special needs as well as other programs assisting youth and young adults with job readiness training and placement.
82	Malta Square	Hoyt Avenue South at 27th Street	At location closest to 27-20 Hoyt Avenue South	Queens	Vallone	The Maltese Center is located at 27-20 Hoyt Avenue South, Queens and recently celebrated its 25th anniversary. Many dignitaries from Malta have visited the Maltese Center. The Center serves a large Maltese population in the surrounding area.
83	Sandra Hernandez Place	East 140th Street	Between Brook Avenue and Willis Avenue	Manhattan	Viverito	Sandra Hernandez passed away on November 30, 2007. After personal drug and alcohol abuse in the early years of her life, Mrs. Hernandez turned her life around and became the Founder and Executive Director of the Freedom Community Center, which still serves the Mott Haven community by providing housing for domestic violence victims, Alcoholics Anonymous meetings, health and human services, HIV testing and summer youth programs.
84	Charno's Way	None	At the intersection of Manhattan Ave and Greenpoint Avenue	Brooklyn	Yassky	Honoring Joseph, Edmund and Larry Charno for establishing Joe's Department Store and the Harrico Pharmacy serving the Greenpoint community for over 30 years.