Legal areas in which services may be provided include, but are not limited to: consumer/finance; education; employment; family; juvenile; health; housing; income maintenance; individual rights; and miscellaneous benefits.

This funding also supports the expansion of services at the three existing CACs (Brooklyn, Queens and Staten Island). Working with specially trained physicians, representatives from the Administration for Children's Services, detectives from the NYPD, and members of the District Attorney's Office, [the Centers] help sexually abused children and their families negotiate the criminal justice and social services systems. The Centers also provide short-term counseling, information and referrals for children and families not involved in current investigations."

Alternative-to-Incarceration Programs $6,694,800

Alternative-to-Incarceration Programs (ATIs) permit New York judges to sanction defendants through means other than jail or prison. The use of intermediate sanctions, such as community service and substance abuse counseling, saves the City the cost of maintaining jail beds for those who otherwise would be incarcerated. In addition, ATIs provide a range of rehabilitative services for defendants and allow jail beds to be made available for more violent offenders who pose a threat to the community. As part of a comprehensive ATI initiative, the Council will provide funding to the following programs:

The Center for Alternative Sentencing Employment Services (CASES) will receive $1.39 million to operate four programs. The Court Employment Project Program (CEP) serves felony non-detainees and offers defendants a wide range of services including counseling, health and drug education, employment training and vocational services. The Treatment Readiness Program (TRP) provides two-day workshops to offenders with substance abuse problems. TRP provides Criminal Court judges with a sentencing option for first and second time offenders. It gives offenders essential information about drugs, substance abuse, and HIV/AIDS. It also provides outreach and referral services as well as access to needed drug and alcohol treatment. The Nathaniel Project is a program designated for seriously mentally ill felony offenders. Lastly, CASES will receive new funding to create a girls-only alternative sentencing program for juvenile offenders.

The Brooklyn Bridge TASC project and the TASC programs in Queens and Bronx place non-violent offenders into drug treatment programs and monitor their status for 12 months. TASC provides services to pre-trial defendants at Rikers Island with the dual diagnosis of mental illness and chemical abuse (MICA). This funding will also allow TASC to provide services at the Queens Drug Treatment Court.

The Women's Prison Association's Hopper Home will receive $944,400.
