Fiscal 2018 Adopted Expense Budget Adjustment Summary

FROM BUDGET RESPONSE TO ADOPTION: STRENGTHENING OUR COMMUNITIES IN UNCERTAIN TIMES

The Fiscal 2018 budget represents the fourth and final budget adopted under the leadership of Speaker Melissa Mark-Viverito and Finance Chair Julissa Ferreras-Copeland. During their tenure, Speaker Mark-Viverito and Chair Ferreras-Copeland have negotiated progressive and fiscally responsible budgets that reflect a comprehensive, transparent, and open budget process. Significantly, they ended the “budget dance” between the Mayor and the Council in which funding cuts would be made by the Mayor with little purpose other than to force the Council to focus on these services rather than broader budgetary issues. Under their leadership, the Council has stressed making investments in our greatest asset, our diverse communities, while simultaneously approaching budgeting in a prudent manner that takes a long-term view of the City’s finances.

Over the past three years, the Speaker and Finance Chair have led the Council to, among other notable successes: secure the highest number of summer youth jobs in the City’s history; establish a year-round youth employment program; increase the number of police officers; support innovative criminal justice reforms; expand library service to Saturdays;; and reaffirm the City’s commitment to our immigrants through the provision of adult literacy programs, access to healthcare, and legal services to ensure due process for all. And the Council did all this while strengthening the City’s reserves to safeguard essential programs and services for the future.

Last year, the Council negotiated an budget that addressed inequality through responsible budgeting. As New York City faces new challenges posed by the federal government, the Council continues its fight for a more equitable city while ensuring that we address the needs of those communities most at risk from this new uncertainty. The Fiscal 2018 Adopted Budget delivers results that will continue to support our communities, strengthen our finances, and signal the Council’s core commitment to justice and fairness for all New Yorkers.

Budget Hearings and Budget Response

As the Council entered the budget process this year, it recognized that while the City’s overall economy continued to be strong, new and uncertain challenges had emerged since the adoption of the Fiscal 2017 budget. The election of President Donald Trump, along with a Republican-led Congress, has resulted in a federal government whose legislative and policy priorities threaten many of the programs and services relied upon by millions of New Yorkers, and whose rhetoric targets communities that are an integral part of our city. This risk is compounded by a City economy that has slowed from the robust growth of the past few years. The Council recognized that the City’s Fiscal 2018 budget must prepare for an unexpected financial downturn, as well as the possibility of devastating federal cuts to vital services. It therefore urged measures such as building the City’s reserves and finding larger efficiencies and savings from agencies. At the same time, the Council saw the need to bolster essential City programs and services that support New Yorkers, especially the most vulnerbale.

After carefully considering the testimony that was presented by the Administration and the public at each of the Preliminary Budget hearings, the Council developed its Budget Response, which contained a clear statement of the Council’s priorities reflecting the goal of strengthening New York City’s communities in these uncertain times. The Council’s sixty-three proposals focused on the following areas:

- Building the City’s Infrastructure;
- Tackling Inequality and Advancing Fairness in Our City;

- Protecting and Investing in Vulnerable New Yorkers;
- Promoting Excellence and Efficiency in Agency Operations;
- Sustaining and Improving Essential City Services;
- Baseline City Priorities; and
- Improving Accountability and Oversight

On April 26, 2017, the Mayor released the Fiscal 2018 Executive Budget. While the budget addressed some of the core priorities including food access, school air conditioning, and bolstering children's services, it failed to include many of the other significant priorities voiced by the Council, and therefore did not truly reflect the vision of both the Mayor and Council essential for the final adopted budget. Throughout nearly 100 hours of Executive Budget hearings with dozens of City agencies, the Council continuously questioned the heads of those agencies about the proposals that were not included, as well as the lack of transparency that several agencies demonstrated with respect to new needs and agency priorities. It is important to note, the Council has several commitments from the Administration to

Fiscal 2018 Adopted Budget

Upon conclusion of the agency budget hearings, The Council received valuable input from numerous members of the public who provided testimony. The Council continued its budget negotiations with the objective of ensuring that the adopted budget would be one that reflected the shared priorities of the Administration and Council for the benefit of all New Yorkers. Based on this goal, the Fiscal 2018 Adopted Budget that resulted from these negotiations is a clear success. The Council's vision and persistence led to victories for our City's communities that include:

- Increasing employment opportunities for City youth. Under the leadership of Speaker Mark Viverito and Finance Chair Ferreras-Copeland, the Council has made unprecedented investments in employment opportunities for young New Yorkers. For Fiscal 2018, the Council negotiated an additional $9 million for the Summer Youth Employment Program to provide a record 70,000 jobs for young New Yorkers, along with a $19 million investment to provide an additional 6,500 year-round jobs.
- Promoting Physical Education for All Students. The Council and the Administration recognize that the health of our students is essential to their overall academic success. The Council called for construction of essential school components including gymnasiums. The Fiscal 2018 budget includes $105 million in capital funding and $1.8 million in expense funding to ensure that all students are enrolled in mandatory Physical Education by 2021.
- Caring for our seniors. The Council pledged that Fiscal 2018 would be the "Year of the Senior." The Fiscal 2018 Adopted Budget reflects this commitment through a record $23 million in baselined funding for senior services including: $10 million for the model budget for senior centers, $6.5 million to address the homecare waitlist and $1.2 million to address the case management waitlist, $4 million for a new Caregiver Support Program, and $1.2 million for weekend meals.
- Providing property tax relief for the City's veterans. The Council remains committed to supporting those who served and sacrificed on behalf of our country. In Fiscal 2018, the Council successfully negotiated with the Administration to expand the veterans' tax exemption that will result in an average savings on property tax bills of over $400 per veteran.

Fiscal 2018 Adopted Expense Budget Adjustment Summary

- Enforcing the Rights of All New Yorkers. In a climate where many New Yorkers are concerned about whether the federal government will continue to protect and enforce their rights, the Adopted budget includes $2.67 million to expand the City's Human Rights Commission by 26 positions in the Law Enforcement Bureau.
- Supporting after school youth programming. The Comprehensive After School System (COMPASS) program helps to support the development of young New Yorkers in grades K-12 with academic and other enrichment activities. The Fiscal 2018 Adopted Budget will include $16 million to maintain and stabilize the program citywide.
- Strengthening nonprofit service providers. The City's nonprofit human service providers are on the frontlines in our communities every day, delivering vital assistance to the most vulnerable New Yorkers. The Fiscal 2018 Adopted Budget reflects our support for these essential organizations by allocating $17.6 million to increase the indirect rate on human service contracts, which will grow to $88 million by Fiscal 2021, and providing $12.7 million for model contracts for ACS, runaway homeless youth, and adult protective services.
- Expanding School Breakfast and Lunch. The Council believes that our students are best able to succeed if they have access to affordable, healthy meals in their schools. In Fiscal 2018, a greater number of students will have access to such meals through a $12.5 million investment in the Adopted Budget to expand the universal lunch program and provide breakfast in the classrooms for all elementary school students.
- Feeding New Yorkers Suffering from Hunger. The Council stands firm in its belief that no New Yorker should ever go hungry, it successfully won the inclusion of an additional $7.2 million in Fiscal 2018 to expand the Emergency Food Assistance Program and help meet the demand at food pantries and community kitchens throughout the City.
- Supporting Our City's Libraries and Cultural Organizations. Two of New York City's most precious resources are our libraries and cultural organizations. The Council has led the way over the past three years in securing unprecedented funding to support libraries and the arts. The Fiscal 2018 Adopted Budget continues to build upon this with an additional $110 million in capital funding for libraries and $15 million for cultural organizations.
- Improving the City's Capital Process. The Council has repeatedly highlighted the often frustrating process of completing capital projects in the City, including frequent delays and cost overruns. To help reform the capital process, the Council proposed, and secured an agreement from the Administration to establish, a capital taskforce.
- Firefighter boots. Our City's firefighters put themselves in harm's way and work tirelessly to protect us. The Fiscal 2018 Adopted Budget includes $4 million to provide them a second pair of boots.

Council Initiatives

Each year, the Council funds several initiatives to enhance programs and services that support New Yorkers across the five boroughs. They are a statement of the values and priorities of the Council. This year, the Fiscal 2018 Adopted Budget includes increased funding for Council priorities including:

- Immigrant Services. During this critical time for our City's immigrant population, the Council has demonstrated unequivocal support for immigrant New Yorkers. The Adopted Budget expands legal services for all immigrants facing deportation proceedings through the New York Immigrant Family

Unity Project to $10 million, and for young refugees through the Unaccompanied Minor Program to $2 million. It also reinforces our commitment to providing immigrant New Yorkers supportive social services through funding for mental health support and immigrant resource centers.

- Helping More New Yorkers Graduate from College. The Council has included $2 million in the Adopted Budget for the CUNY Remediation Program, an essential tool to ensure that more incoming college students are prepared for their experience and can stay on the path to graduation.
- Criminal Justice Reform. Under the leadership of Speaker Mark-Viverito, the Council continues to lead the way on criminal justice reform, ensuring that New York City remains a model for cities across the country. The Fiscal 2018 Adopted Budget includes funding for several crucial reform efforts, including $1.0 million for law enforcement assisted diversion, $710,000 to establish a Neighborhood Court, $375,000 to support supervised release, $300,000 for video visitation, and $400,000 to provide opportunity for incarcerated and formerly-incarcerated individuals pursue a college degree.
- Creating an Equitable Parks System. The Council believes that underserved communities deserve access to quality neighborhood parks. This year, the Council is enhancing the Parks Equity Initiative by nearly $2 million.

Budgeting Responsibly

While always priority of the Council, ensuring that the budget included measures to ensure long-term budget stability was a significant focus of the Council's negotiations for Fiscal 2018. This is due to a recognition that the City must continue to be in a financial position that enables it meet the needs of its people in the face of a less robust City economy and increased risks to critical federal funding. The City's economy has been particularly strong in recent years as it has recovered from the 2008 Financial Crisis, however, reduced growth in tax revenue for the second consecutive year as well as slower job growth require the City to plan responsibly.

Building up the City's reserves is a crucial component of fiscally responsible budgeting, as reserves are the primary source of relief in the event of an economic downturn. For the Fiscal 2018 Adopted Budget, the Council successfully negotiated an additional increase over the Mayor's Executive Budget of $300 million in reserves, bringing the total reserves to $9.61 billion, the highest in the City's history. This brings the ratio of reserves to adjusted total spending from 10.7% to 11%.

The Council repeatedly called on agencies throughout this budget cycle to find additional savings and efficiencies. As a result, the Adopted Budget recognizes an additional savings of $100 million through headcount accruals and a partial hiring freeze across agencies.

Terms and Conditions

The Fiscal 2018 Adopted Budget includes a total of 31 terms and conditions. These measures require agencies to share information with the Council and the public, as well as directing them to take certain actions with respect to such programs, as project-specific spending advances. This year, the Council secured the reattachment of several terms and conditions from the Fiscal 2017 budget, as well as expanding several current terms to provide new data and attaching brand new terms to the Fiscal 2018 budget. Some of the notable new and expanded terms and conditions for Fiscal 2018 include:

- Semi-annual reports from the New York Police Department on school crossing guard headcount, selection of locations, and the basis for prioritizing and selecting locations;

Fiscal 2018 Adopted Expense Budget Adjustment Summary

- An annual report from the Department for the Aging on senior center utilization, including meals served, attendance, and demographics of those attending senior centers;
- An annual report from the Department of Education on enrollment in the Administration's 3-K for All program;
- An annual report from the Department of Education and the Department of Youth and Community Development on adult literacy programs, including enrollment and outcomes of such programs; and
- A requirement that the Department of Correction notify inmates of the process of obtaining their birth certificate prior to release from custody.

Discretionary Funding

Each year, Council Members allocate discretionary funds to not-for-profit organizations in order to meet local needs and fill gaps in City agency services. While not a large part of the budget, this funding allows the City to take advantage of Council Members' localized knowledge to better target services to residents. Council rules adopted in 2014 raised the already high standard of transparency by which this funding operates in requiring that the method used to allocate funding among Members be publicly disclosed.

In this budget, each Member is allocated a base $400,000 in expense funding. Members are further allocated an additional $25,000; $50,000; $75,000; or $100,000 depending upon the level of poverty in the district.

This year's Schedule C reinforces the Council's commitment to supporting our communities in uncertain times. Our spending plan complements the long-term budget stability and increased efficiency and transparency measures the Council negotiated for as part of the larger budget. This plan addresses inadequacies in the type, scale, and accessibility of services and programs available to New Yorkers to ensure equity, access, and opportunity for those who need it most.

Fiscal 2018 Adopted Expense Budget Adjustment Summary

Fiscal 2018 Adopted Expense Budget Adjustment Summary/Schedule C New York City Council Finance Division

Introduction

Schedule C designates funding for community based not-for-profit and other public service organizations. Expenditure of any funds for each organization identified in Schedule C is contingent upon the satisfactory completion of: 1) a detailed initial review process; and 2) all applicable City procurement requirements at the time of contract award. Even then, funding may be used only for appropriately reimbursable expenses, as determined by the administering agency.

For-profit entities may not receive discretionary funds, except when the primary not-for-profit funding recipient subcontracts with a for-profit entity as part of the delivery of services. Such proposed subcontracts, however, must be:

- only an ancillary part of the program to be funded - not the primary basis for the discretionary award; and
- pre-approved by the contracting agency and the City Council.

The New York City Council and the Mayor's Office of Contract Services (MOCS) have established the following review for all organizations listed in Schedule C:

- The Council reviews the public purpose, potential conflicts of interest, compliance with the NYS Charities Bureau, past performance, compliance with laws, rules, regulations, and policies, including not-for-profit status, any reported investigations, audits, inquiries, and other relevant information; and
- MOCS reviews organizations which were allocated more than $10,000 cumulatively in this fiscal year to confirm whether the organization has been prequalified, indicating organizational capability to establish a business relationship with the City of New York and deliver specific services.

While approved subcontractors of organizations that receive discretionary funding are not generally required to submit a prequalification application, they are subject to conflict of interest disclosure requirements, as are not-for-profit organizations. Prior to the designation of community-based not-for-profit and other public service organizations, members disclose on the record any potential conflicts of interest with organizations funded by other members. A record of such disclosures for organizations funded in this document can be found on the Council's website, available at <http://council.nyc.gov/budget/fy2018/>.

For organizations requesting funding in excess of $10,000, MOCS conducts an additional review. MOCS reviews each such organization to determine whether the organization has the ability to establish or maintain a business relationship with the City and can demonstrate experience or capability to provide services to New Yorkers. MOCS prequalification is administered through HHS Accelerator and renewed every three years. Each organization's compliance with annual filing requirements is reviewed each year to maintain prequalified status. In addition, the Department of Cultural Affairs (DCLA) administers the Cultural Development Fund to establish prequalification for organizations awarded cultural funds through DCLA. Further, for any organization receiving funding through a fiscal conduit, the fiscal conduit must also be approved by MOCS through the prequalification process. Only organizations receiving less than $10,000 total in discretionary funding may be eligible to use a fiscal conduit.

Fiscal 2018 Adopted Expense Budget Adjustment Summary

For those organizations identified in Schedule C without an asterisk, the Council has completed its review process and, where applicable, MOCS has prequalified the organization and any associated fiscal conduit, and the organization has attended MOCS corporate governance, fiscal management and compliance training (if required to attend).

For those organizations identified in Schedule C with an asterisk, either MOCS or the Council's review process has not yet been completed; the New York State Attorney General's Office has not yet provided the Council with final verification of the organization's charitable filing status; or the organization is required to attend MOCS corporate governance, fiscal management and compliance training. All such reviews and requirements must be completed prior to contract award.

Further restrictions to ensure the appropriate use of City funds will be incorporated through the City's procurement process.

All organizations receiving funding pursuant to an initiative will be subject to prequalification review and approval by the Mayor's Office of Contract Services.

Fiscal 2018 Adopted Expense Budget Adjustment Summary

Anti-Poverty

When allocating funding this year, the Council used a poverty indicator to provide a basis for which to fund programs. Poverty was estimated at the Council District level using 2012 American Community Survey data, specifically the number of individuals below the federal poverty level. Funding to the listed organizations will help to address income disparities throughout the five boroughs.

Criminal Justice Services

The funding allocation for the past twenty years in Criminal Justice Services Initiatives reflects The Council's steadfast vision of reducing incarceration costs, promoting increased equality and seeking highly innovative paths for criminal justice reform. Criminal Justice programming funded under this initiative promote safe neighborhoods, provide survivors with tools to rebuild and offer offenders an opportunity to reform and re-enter society. Collectively, The Council's holistic and methodical approach in reforming public safety and criminal justice accentuate its resolve to find sustainable measures to break the cycle of poverty while reducing crime. The Fiscal 2018 Adopted Budget includes $12.5 million to support services for incarcerated individuals formally involved in the criminal justice system. Since Fiscal 2015, the Council has increased funding for criminal justice services by $6.5 million, continuing to strengthen the City Council's commitment to criminal justice reform.

Furthermore, In Fiscal 2018, the City Council and the Administration continued to build on criminal justice reforms. The Council will bolster the recently launched Administrations Jails to Jobs initiative and further expand the Administrations supervised release program that is designed to reduce the population on Rikers Island.

Cultural Organizations

The Council allocates more than $28 million in Fiscal 2018 to support a wide and varied group of cultural organizations throughout the City. This is in addition to $10 million added by the Administration to the adopted budget, which will enable over 1,000 new and existing cultural organizations to expand their programming. The organizations and artists supported by these initiatives, many smaller than those traditionally supported by the City, provide creative and innovative programming that strengthens the diverse fabric of the City through activities such as providing art enrichment to the young, and increasing access to the unique cultural offerings of immigrant heritages. The Council's funding ensures that the arts remain a central feature of civic and economic life in the City.

Fiscal 2018 Adopted Expense Budget Adjustment Summary

Domestic Violence Services

For the past decade, The City Council has been instrumental in leading efforts to reshape New York City’s approach to domestic violence, and has provided community based organizations with critical resources to prevent and combat Domestic Violence. The increase in funding year over year demonstrates the Council’s long-term commitment to eliminating domestic violence and providing safe communities across New York City.

In November 2016, Mayor de Blasio launched the New York City Task Force on Domestic Violence, to develop a comprehensive citywide strategy to address one of New York City’s urgent challenges. Included in the Fiscal 2018 Adopted Budget is The City’s investment of nearly $7 million in new initiatives split across multiple agencies, which are intended to reduce domestic violence and provide support for survivors.

The Fiscal 2018 Adopted Budget allocation of $9.8 million with an enhancement of $1.6 million to the Domestic Violence and Empowerment Program demonstrates of the City Council’s commitment to increasing resources to combatting Domestic Violence. Funding supports services for survivors of domestic violence and their families, which includes prevention, case management, crisis intervention, legal services, referrals, counseling, education, technical assistance, training, and community outreach.

Environmental Initiatives

In Fiscal 2018, the Council included $13.3 million for programs that protect and improve the environment and promote cleaner communities, while providing employment opportunities for the economically-disadvantaged and training residents on sustainable environmental practices. Since Fiscal 2015, this program area has increased by $9 million, a reflection of this Council’s commitment to ensuring New York is a more equitable, efficient and environmentally friendly City.

Additionally, the Mayor’s Office has set a target of achieving Zero Waste in New York City by 2030, which aims to eliminate the need to send waste to out-of-state landfills. Currently, it is unclear whether the City is on track to meet this goal, as curbside and containerized diversion rates hover around 17 percent. In the Fiscal 2018 Preliminary Budget Response, the Council called upon the Administration to bolster outreach and transparency surrounding Zero Waste. In Fiscal 2018, the Council received a commitment from the Administration to work on this. Funding in this program area will also help keep New York City on track in achieving this goal.

Fiscal 2018 Adopted Expense Budget Adjustment Summary

Health Services

The Health Services initiatives funded by the Council in Fiscal 2018 demonstrate the Council’s commitment to reducing health disparities and promoting health equity throughout the five boroughs. The initiatives support a spectrum of health services and programs delivered in a culturally and linguistically responsive manner to our most vulnerable and marginalized citizens, including children living in medically underserved communities and immigrants lacking healthcare access and coverage.

Major investments in Fiscal 2018 include $6.3 million for Ending the Epidemic, a statewide plan to reduce the number of new HIV infections annually from 3,000 incidents to 750 incidents and, subsequently, to end the AIDS epidemic in New York by 2020. The programs and services funded under this initiative address various unmet needs in the HIV/AIDS community, including HIV prevention and literacy for seniors and HIV prevention and education for communities of color. Additional funding supports efforts to combat the spread of Hepatitis B/C and HIV as passed through intravenous drug use.

In Fiscal 2018, the Council continues its support of the Nurse Family Partnership (NFP), an evidence-based nurse home visiting program that provides support to low-income first-time mothers, with a $2 million investment. The Administration will also contribute $2 million to NFP in Fiscal 2018. Programs and services funded under the Reproductive and Sexual Health Services Initiative and the Maternal Health Services Initiative bolster the commitment to reducing infant mortality and promoting the health and wellness of women and babies. The Child Health and Wellness Initiative supports nutrition, dental, and asthma programs for our City’s children.

Higher Education Initiatives

The City Council has demonstrated a lasting commitment to public higher education in New York City. As an incentive for high academic achievement, the Council will continue its investment in Merit-Based Scholarships for city high school graduates attending CUNY colleges and the Fashion Institute of Technology (FIT), making funding available to eligible students for the length of their undergraduate studies. In addition to scholarships, the Council will support a redesign of the University’s remediation programming, allowing more students in CUNY community colleges to move forward with credit-bearing coursework and degree attainment. Other initiatives support research, workforce development and cultural activities across CUNY campuses. For Fiscal 2018, the Council’s support for higher education programs and services totals $20.5 million.

Homeless Services

In Fiscal 2018, the Council continues to provide emergency grants to families in financial crisis and at risk of eviction to keep them in their homes and avoid the shelter system through the Citywide Homeless Prevention Fund. This initiative builds upon existing efforts by the Administration to prevent families entering the homeless shelter system. Additionally, the Council established and supports an initiative that fulfills a gap in aftercare services not currently provided by the Administration. This initiative takes an innovative approach to addressing the mental health and emotional needs of families in shelter as well as providing wrap-around aftercare services strengthening families' ties to communities through the Children and Families in NYC Homeless System initiative.

Housing

Housing agencies and related programmatic activities rely heavily on federal subsidies. However, federal resources for housing agencies remain under severe pressure and there is tremendous uncertainty as to future federal funding. This requires housing agencies to coordinate with elected officials on programmatic activities to ensure that community needs are met at the City level. In addition, the implementation of Housing New York, Mayor de Blasio’s plan to create and preserve 200,000 units of affordable housing over the next ten years, will bring substantial new construction, significant population growth, and increased pressure on existing infrastructure and the City’s housing market. Within this context, Council funding will provide a critical resource to ensure that communities access the tools, resources, and programming necessary to address local housing needs. In Fiscal 2018, the City Council will provide approximately $11.2 million to HPD’s annual operating budget to support various housing initiatives, including tenant advocacy and education, code enforcement advocacy, housing court assistance, and other housing-related public education. In addition, the City Council will provide $255,000 to DCA’s operating budget for financial empowerment support for tenants. Most of this funding, about $10.4 million is allocated to local community-based organizations which are tasked with carrying out the goals of Council housing initiatives.

The Fiscal 2018 budget reflects an unprecedented commitment of $77 million towards universal access to free legal services for tenants facing eviction in housing court. At full implementation, the City’s investment in anti-eviction legal services will total $155 million by Fiscal 2022. The Administration agreed to collaborate with the Council’s Anti-Eviction Legal Services Institute. In addition, the Administration has also agreed to provide general operating support to NYCHA for various residential programs, including: the expansion of Flexible Operations; the Creation of the Resident Leadership Academy; Community Programming at two additional urban farms; the expansion of the Childcare and Food Business Pathways Programs; and an additional digital van.

Fiscal 2018 Adopted Expense Budget Adjustment Summary

Target Populations: Low-income housing residents

Scope of Services: This initiative supports organizations that work on a neighborhood level to combat the loss of affordable housing. Work includes, but is not limited to: tenant organization; code enforcement advocacy; housing court assistance; apartment repossession; and other housing-related public education. These efforts are informed by developing and executing neighborhood focused strategies, as well as providing demand driven services to individual residents. Support is also provided to enhance the capacity and technical skills of the providers within this initiative. This initiative provides $2,451,000 for the Housing Preservation Initiative (HPI) to support neighborhood based strategies that respond most effectively to various threats to affordable housing in high-need neighborhoods. The initiative also provides $1,100,000 in allocations of $29,729 for the Community Consultant Contracts (CCC) to provide general support and assistance to individuals seeking housing information, advice and referral services. To ensure that the groups funded under HPI and CCC receive capacity building training and support, $100,000 is allocated to the Association for Neighborhood and Housing Development (ANHD).

Immigrant Services

For Fiscal 2018, the City Council included $19.3 million for immigrant services that reflect the Council's continued commitment to ensuring that immigrant New Yorkers have access to legal assistance for both detained and non-detained persons, health services, and other wraparound services. This includes a continued commitment to the New York Immigrant Family Unity Project (NYIFUP), the nation's first government-funded legal representation program for detained and non-detained immigrants, Key to the City events, legal and social services for children in removal proceedings, and free legal services to assist immigrants on their paths to U.S. citizenship. The City Council continued its groundbreaking support for services focused on reducing health disparities among foreign-born New Yorkers, and services to adults with children and unaccompanied minor in removal proceedings in New York's immigration courts.

In the Fiscal 2018 Preliminary Budget Response, the Council called on the Administration to institutionalize and increase support for the Council's NYIFUP program. The Fiscal 2018 Budget includes $16.4 million in funding for legal defense for immigrants, which provides legal counsel for eligible immigrants facing deportation, unaccompanied minor children, and complex immigration legal cases. However, the Administration's legal services program for detained immigrants is not the Council's NYIFUP model. As a result, the Budget fails to meet the emerging and continued existing demands for the City's most vulnerable population. Due to these concerns and recognizing the importance of maintaining the integrity of NYIFUP and other immigrant legal services programs that the Council has been spearheading, the Council increases its investment for NYIFUP and Unaccompanied Minors and Families for Fiscal 2018. This includes a total of $10 million for NYIFUP and $2 million to support the unaccompanied minors and families program.

In light of changes by the federal government, the Council also called on the Administration to facilitate mental health support for vulnerable immigrant New Yorkers, and to establish a family resource centers for immigrant. To address these services, the Council includes funding to provide mental health support for vulnerable immigrant New Yorkers who currently live in fear, and $500,000 to help establish a team that will provide case management, referral services, and outreach work to best serve immigrant communities in Fiscal 2018.

Additionally, the Fiscal 2018 Budget includes $1.1 million for expansion of Action NYC to expand access to legal support for immigrant New Yorkers by opening new legal screening sites at Health + Hospitals locations in Queens, Manhattan and the Bronx, in partnership with the New York Legal Assistance Group's LegalHealth division. In Fiscal 2016 and 2017, the Council's Immigrant Health Initiative supported the New York Legal Assistance Group's LegalHealth division to meet the health and legal needs of the City's vulnerable population at Health + Hospitals locations. Recognizing this, the expansion of Action NYC is modeled after the Council's leadership in providing services focused on reducing health disparities for immigrant and foreign-born New Yorkers through the Immigrant Health Initiative. The Fiscal 2018 Budget also includes $350,000 for additional election day translation services, which would help immigrant New Yorkers' understanding of the City's election process and increase immigrant's participation in the City's elections.

Fiscal 2018 Adopted Expense Budget Adjustment Summary

Legal Services

The Administration and The City Council’s collaborative efforts to increase access to civil legal services has resulted in an investment of over $100 million for civil legal services. The Fiscal 2018 Adopted Budget allocation of $9.2 million reaffirms City Council’s commitment to provide vital civil legal services to low and middle-income New Yorkers. The scope and breadth of programming has grown dramatically during the past few years and the restructuring of civil legal service contracts reflects these changes. Prior to Fiscal 2015, City Council funding supported more than half of the City’s civil legal services contracts. In Fiscal 2015, the de Blasio Administration consolidated almost all civil legal service contracts into the Human Resources Administration (HRA) budget, which includes an allocation of $104 million in. Fiscal 2018 Adopted Budget funding supports direct legal representation and brief services on matters that may include civil justice, unemployment insurance, supplemental security income benefits, consumer/finance, education, employment, class action cases, family, juvenile, health, income maintenance, individual rights, housing, and employment.

Mental Health Services

The Mental Health Services initiatives funded by the Council in Fiscal 2018 demonstrate the Council's commitment to supporting the mental health needs of New Yorkers, particularly the most vulnerable and marginalized populations, such as isolated seniors, court-involved youth, and traumatized children. The Council-funded programs and services complement the Administration's ThriveNYC Mental Health Roadmap, a four-year $840 million plan to promote mental health throughout New York City.

Major Council investments in Fiscal 2018 include more than $2 million for the mental health needs of people with chemical dependencies, developmental disabilities, and/or serious mental illnesses and more than $1 million for the Mental Health Services for Vulnerable Populations Initiative. Fiscal 2018 also continues the Council's historic commitment to supporting individuals and families affected by autism with the $3.3 million Autism Awareness Initiative. The Council also supports non-profit organizations as they transition from a fee-for-service system to a managed-care model under New York State's Medicaid redesign with the $500,000 Medicaid Redesign Transition Initiative.

Parks and Recreation Services

Today, the maintenance of the City’s parks system has improved when compared to the past years, in part, due to the collaborative efforts of the City Council and the Administration. However, these improvements are yet to be felt equally throughout the City. Parks in low- and moderate-income neighborhoods are generally less well maintained than parks in wealthier neighborhoods that are supported by private organizations. As a result, in the Fiscal 2018 Adopted Budget the Council will continue its investment in parks with an allocation of $14.1 million for the Parks Equity and the Parks Maintenance Initiatives programs. In addition the Fiscal 2018 budget includes a $4.4 million for DPR, including $1 million for tree stump removal, $1.7 million to extend the City’s pool and beach season by an additional one week, and $2.6 million to maintain a seven-year tree pruning cycle citywide. Combined, these additional allocations from the City Council and the Administration will add $18.5 million to the Department of Parks and Recreation’s budget for Fiscal 2018 to ensure continued improvement in parks maintenance; extend the City’s pool and beach season and increase support for various local neighborhood parks.

Fiscal 2018 Adopted Expense Budget Adjustment Summary

Veteran Services

Through the Veteran Services Initiatives, the Council maintains its strong support for one of the City’s most deserved populations. In Fiscal 2018, these initiatives will provide $1,340,000 to various community organizations to address the critical needs of the City’s veterans. This funding builds upon the work of the Department of Veterans’ Services, which the City Council established with the passage of Local Law 113 of 2015. This Agency, which is in its second year of operation, has greatly bolstered the City’s capacity to develop and implement a sustainable and long-term strategy to serve our veteran population. Most recently, the City Council has further anchored its support for veterans by spearheading an agreement with the Administration that would expand the Veterans Tax Exemption, saving the City’s veteran home-owners hundreds of tax dollars each year.

Youth Services

The City Council has long provided funding to community-based organizations that support a broad range of youth services. The Council has worked with the Administration to restore $16 million for more than 9,800 COMPASS afterschool slots ensuring the availability of physical, social, cultural and academic enrichment to elementary students across the City. The Council has also successfully advocated to restore $15 million for SONYC programming that will serve 22,000 City middle school students this summer. Through the Council's efforts, Fiscal 2018 will see a total of $33.9 million in new money to support the Summer Youth Employment Program, allowing the nation's largest youth employment program to offer an unprecedented 70,000 jobs this summer. Further, the Council and Administration have added a combined $19 million to support Work, Learn, Grow, the Council's year-round youth employment program piloted in Fiscal 2016. In total, the Council will allocate $20.5 million in Fiscal 2018 to support youth services.

Fiscal 2018 Adopted Expense Budget Adjustment Summary

Young Women's Initiative

The New York City Council, for the second year in a row, continues to support the Young Women's Initiative (YWI). YWI seeks to build a blueprint for investing in the future of young women and girls in New York City over the long-term, especially those of color. Programs supported were recommended by the YWI Task Force, which included community-based organizations, grassroots partners and women and girls themselves. The recommendations from the YWI Task Force span various topic areas including health, economic and workforce development, community supports, education, and anti-violence and criminal justice.

For Fiscal 2018, the Council commits $5 million to fund 11 of the key YWI recommendations. In addition, the Administration continues to support the work of YWI by baselining funding for the Gender Equity Liaison positions, which were funded by the Council in Fiscal 2017 and by the committees to establish a YWI office. These Gender Equity Liaison positions are at the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene, the Department of Education, the Department of Youth and Community Development, Housing Preservation Department, and the Human Resources Administration.
