Major City Programs

Fiscal 2021 Preliminary Budget includes $75 million for NYC Care. This program will serve 600,000 New Yorkers without insurance, including undocumented New Yorkers. Program was launched in the Bronx, and has since expanded to Brooklyn and Staten Island.

$58 million NOT included in FY21 Preliminary Budget. Funding for Council-funded programs such as $16.6 million for NYIFUP, $12 million for Adult Literacy, $7.4 for Cultural Immigrant Initiative, and $3.9 million for Unaccompanied Minors and Families – are not included beyond this fiscal year.

IDNYC Fiscal 2021 Preliminary Budget totals $21.2 million. IDNYC is the largest free municipal identification card program in the country. The card was especially designed to serve the City's most vulnerable populations, including immigrants.

Fiscal 2020 Adopted Budget added $12 million for Adult Literacy. The Administration allocated $8 million and the Council $4 million. The Fiscal 2021 Preliminary Budget does not include funding for Adult Literacy.
