

JENNIFER
GUTIÉRREZ

City Council Member District 34

NYC's Neighborhood Opportunity Center offers gently used business attire, casual clothing, shoes and accessories in five NeON Clothing Closets throughout the five boroughs.

Brooklyn Clothing Closet
345 Adams Street
New York, NY 10013

Queens Clothing Closet
162-24 Jamaica Avenue
New York, NY 11432

Cradles to Crayons is the largest, national nonprofit organization with Children's Clothing Insecurity.

Through Giving Factory Direct, a first-in-kind online product donation platform, Cradles to Crayons connects donors from across the country directly to children experiencing Clothing Insecurity in New York City.

Contact them at support@givingfactorydirect.org

DISTRICT 34 CLOTHING ASSISTANCE COMMUNITY LIST

ST. JOHNS THE BAPTIST CHURCH

333 Hart St, Brooklyn, NY 11206

Call (718) 455-6864 for hours, which are usually Monday, Wednesday, Thursday, 9:00 am to 12:00 noon.

Low income Brooklyn families, including immigrants and Spanish speakers, may get assistance.

Vouchers may be offered too.

HELP USA

515 Blake Ave, Brooklyn, NY 11207

(718) 922-0783

Offers assistance to low income families and people experiencing homelessness. Programs include job training and domestic violence shelters, book, backpacks and other free school supplies. This location also sells items to the general public at a low cost. Beds, kitchen tables, electronics, TVs, and much more as far as furniture is offered.

CONTACT OUR OFFICE:

Phone: 718-963-3141

Email: District34@council.nyc.gov

NYCHA FURNITURE DISTRIBUTION PROGRAM

The center delivers free, used household items and furniture to families who have come out of a shelter. There may be used beds, kitchen tables, small appliances and other items to very low income families, most of whom live in public housing in NYC. Diapers may be given to new moms. Call (212) 306-3472 or 718-707-7771

NYC CLOTHING BANK

This non-profit works with local churches, shelter, soup kitchens and charities. They distribute new clothes and merchandise to these organizations, when then distribute the items to the needy.

Students from low income families or single parent homes in NYC can also get backpacks, free school items or supplies as well as stuff for the year. There is also other assistance, including desks or Chromebooks.

(718) 492-4015 or 718-557-1399

ST JOHN THE DIVINE CATHEDRAL

1047 Amsterdam Ave
New York, NY 10025

The church provides an array of support services to the low income and those in need. Resources include a Crisis Center, free professional and emergency clothing (shoes or accessories), emergency food and a grab and go lunch meal on Sundays. There is an emergency food pantry, advocacy, training and intervention. Call (212) 316-7540.

Telephone - (212) 316-7540

ST. MARY'S CHURCH CLOTHING DRIVE

Location is 230 Classon Ave
Brooklyn, NY 11205

They collect donated clothes from the community and then give the stuff out to shelters, free clothing distribution centers and other charities. that being said, some referrals may be offered to places for shoes, general clothing items, jackets and more. (718) 529-6070

ROOM TO GROW

7 W 30th St, New York, NY 10001.

Room to Grow offers assistance to mothers in poverty. It can provide them with essential provisions for their babies. Call the non-profit for clothing, toys, baby monitors, books, video/music tapes, blankets and bedding, bottles, teethers, bassinets, high chairs and strollers, baby carriers, swings, diaper bags, accessories.

Phone (212) 620-7800.

BOTTOMLESS CLOSET

15 Pennsylvania Plaza
New York, NY 10001

Economically disadvantaged and unemployed New York City women can get professional work or interview clothing. Job-preparedness training is also offered.

Telephone - (212) 563-2499

CONTACT OUR OFFICE:

Phone: 718-963-3141

Email: District34@council.nyc.gov